Just Deserts Eric Walters, Ray Zahab, 2011-08-30 Dear Ethan I know you must be terribly confused a little bit scared and thinking hoping praying that the plane will return It will not Ethan can barely believe it Until now his biggest problems have been trying to stay in one school without getting expelled and finding his next drink But after Ethan's drunken imitation of the current headmaster goes up on YouTube his father steps in with a shockingly drastic measure Now Ethan is sprawled in the sand In the Sahara desert Alone According to his father's letter Ethan is to trek 200 km across the desert to the city of Tunis with the help of a guide and three other young people Confused hungover and if he is truthful more than a little scared Ethan has no choice He will face sandstorms vipers and agonizingly painful blisters but most painful of all he will face his inner demons and come to a true realization of who he really is

Not Hockey Angie Abdou, Jamie Dopp, 2023-08-29 In this carefully curated collection of essays editors Jamie Dopp and Angie Abdou go beyond their first collection Writing the Body in Motion to engage with the meaning of sport found in Canadian sport literature How does sport differ from physically risky recreational activities that require strength and skill Does sport demand that someone win At what point does a sport become an art With the aim of prompting reflections on and discussions of the boundaries of sport contributors explore how literature engages with sport as a metaphor as a language and as bodily expression Instead of a focus on what is often described as Canada's national pastime contributors examine sports in Canadian literature that are decidedly not hockey From skateboarding and parkour to fly fishing and curling these essays engage with Canadian histories and broader societal understandings through sports on the margin Interspersed with original reflections by iconic Canadian literary figures such as Steven Heighton Aritha Van Herk Thomas Wharton and Timothy Taylor this volume is fresh and intriguing and offers new ways of reading the body

Walking Home Eric Walters, 2014-10-28 Set in both the wilds and slums of Kenya a powerful story about a brother and sister's brave journey to find a place to call home 13 year old Muchoki and his younger sister Jata can barely recognize what's become of their lives Only weeks ago they lived in a bustling Kenyan village going to school playing soccer with friends and helping at their parents store But sudden political violence has killed their father and destroyed their home Now Muchoki Jata and their ailing mother live in a tent in an overcrowded refugee camp By day they try to fend off hunger and boredom By night their fears about the future are harder to keep at bay Driven by both hope and desperation Muchoki and Jata set off on what seems like an impossible journey to walk hundreds of kilometers to find their last remaining family

Fourth Dimension Eric Walters, 2018-02-06 In a world with no power chaos soon descends A powerful look at the disintegration of society in the wake of a massive and mysterious outage that has knocked out all modern amenities Fifteen year old Emma has moved house with her ex Marine mother and younger brother It's a brand new condo building which explains the semi regular power outages as workers complete the units around them So Emma isn't particularly concerned when the latest blackout hits just as they are preparing to leave town on a long weekend camping trip

But then the car won't start and their cellphones appear dead and all the cars outside their building seem to be stalled in a long traffic jam. In the midst of what appears to be a massive power outage with their camping gear packed and ready, Emma and her family canoe over to the islands just offshore to wait it out. But while they land on an isolated island with a relatively hidden site, they are far from safe as people become increasingly desperate to find food and shelter. And as the days pass and the power remains out, the threat of violence becomes all too real. School Library Journal, 2009 New York Magazine, 1990-06-25. New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award-winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion, the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea. Quill & Quire, 2008 Box Office, 1936 The Encyclopedia of Best Films Jay Robert Nash, 2019-10-23. This all-inclusive A-Z encyclopedia by one of the world's foremost experts on cinema provides comprehensive annotations of the best films produced from 1914 on. The work offers more than 5,000 three to five star entries: three stars good, four stars excellent, five stars masterpiece. And yes, author Jay Robert Nash has viewed every single one of them as well as many more that did not make the cut. In addition to a précis, each film's entry also includes a listing of the cast as well as the key principles involved in production from the director to the hair stylist. Especially unique to this book is a rating system that helps parents determine whether or not a film is appropriate for their children. Unlike the industry rating system which can be influenced by studio lobbying, Nash objectively evaluates each film and confers upon it one of four recommendations for viewing: recommended, acceptable, cautionary, and unacceptable. Backmatter includes a list of top films by genre (i.e. animated, drama, sports, mystery, adventure, etc.) as well as an annotated name index listing all persons mentioned along with their dates of birth and death. Rounding out this essential volume for the film buff are over 500 still photos from the author's private collection.

Television Performance James Walters, Lucy Fife Donaldson, 2019-08-06. This innovative and timely collection offers a wide-reaching critical evaluation of performance in television, mapping out key conventions, practices, and concerns while introducing performance theory and criticism to the established field of television studies. Chapters from leading scholars move through a range of examples from different styles and genres from Game of Thrones to America's Next Top Model. Individual performances are analysed in close detail as the authors debate central questions of meaning, value, and achievement. Opening out new pathways for inquiry and investigation, this book is an important touchstone for undergraduate and postgraduate students of television media and theatre studies with an interest in the work of actors and non-actors on screen. Billboard, 1943-01-02.
