Shamsi,2005-01-27 Professionals involved in the planning design operation and construction of water wastewater and stormwater systems need to understand the productivity enhancing applications of GIS Inspired by an ASCE sponsored continuing education course taught by the author GIS Applications for Water Wastewater and Stormwater Systems focuses on t Pipeline/South Pipeline Pit Expansion Project, Battle Mountain ,2005 Annual Review of Comparative and International Education 2021 Alexander W. Wiseman,2022-07-19 The Annual Review of Comparative and International Education 2021 Part B begins with several chapters exploring conceptual and methodological developments in comparative and international education followed by studies exploring research to practice and new developments in comparative and international education Biology and Conservation of North American Tortoises David C. Rostal,Earl D. McCoy,Henry R. Mushinsky,2014-08-01 The most comprehensive book ever published on North America s native tortoises Tortoises those unmistakable turtles evolved from a lineage that split off from the familiar pond turtles roughly 100 million years ago Over time these plant eating land turtles spread around the world growing to an enormous size depending on the species and living so long that they have become the stuff of legends By most accounts they are indeed the longest lived of the turtles with good records suggesting individuals may live as long as 180 years anecdotal records suggest that some reach ages of 200 years or more Providing the first comprehensive treatment of North America s tortoises Biology and Conservation of North American Tortoises brings together leading experts to give an overview of tortoise morphology taxonomy systematics paleontology physiology ecology behavior reproduction diet growth health and conservation The contributors carefully combine their own expertise and observations with results from studies conducted by hundreds of other researchers The result is a book that belongs in the library of every herpetologist Contributors Gustavo Aguirre L Linda J Allison Matthew J Aresco Roy C Averill Murray Joan E Berish Kristin H Berry Dennis M Bramble K Kristina Drake Taylor Edwards Todd C Esque Richard Franz Craig Guyer J Scott Harrison Sharon M Hermann J Howard Hutchison Elliott R Jacobson Valerie M Johnson Richard T Kazmaier Earl D McCoy Philip A Medica Robert W Murphy Henry R Mushinsky Kenneth E Nussear Michael P O Connor Thomas A Radzio David C Rostal Lora L Smith James R Spotila Craig B Stanford C Richard Tracy Tracey D Tuberville Michael Tuma Thane Wibbels The Planets David McNab,James Younger,1999-01-01 A companion to the television series covers such topics as the discovery of Pluto the Orion nebula and the Viking space missions We Are the State! Cristobal Valencia,2015-05-28 Chavistas are the local leaders and activists in Venezuela s Bolivarian Revolution working to establish democracy through government sponsored social missions community self governance and popular collectives We Are the State tells the story of their grassroots activism In perspectives gleaned from participant observation with barrio residents in workplaces communal kitchens city wide forums and grassroots meetings and assemblies as well as family and recreational events anthropologist Cristobal Valencia vividly recounts tensions between activists local officials and the wealthy opposition The author offers an anthropological analysis of the state social movements and democracy as lived experiences of the poor gendered and racialized residents of two parishes in Caracas Venezuela and Afro Venezuelan communities nearby Ethnographic research reveals the shift in relationships of power and the evolving political practices among the Chavistas the Ch vez government and the opposition Examining the subjective experiences of barrio residents in everyday processes of state formation this book provides a new perspective on the Chavistas arguing that they are a broad based social movement and driving force behind a revolution struggling to transfer state power to organized civil society Through his intense engagement with the constantly changing social political and economic dynamics Valencia dramatically challenges top down understandings of the state and power in Venezuela He shows the unequal relationships between sectors of civil society and he shows state formation as a process enmeshed in the struggles for social justice demonstrating that the state is a sociopolitical entity that acts through civil society rather than above it WALNECK'S CLASSIC CYCLE TRADER, FEBRUARY 2003 Causey Enterprises, LLC, Clinical Textbook of Addictive Disorders, Third Edition Richard J. The Quest for Environmental Regulatory Integration in the European Union Eberhard Böhne, 2006-01-01 It is a commonplace that pollution knows no borders and that environmental law must allow for cross border implementation The European Union specifies this principle in EC directives on integrated pollution prevention and control IPPC on environmental impact assessment EIA and on the control of major accident hazards involving dangerous substances Seveso II This is the first book to investigate from both empirical and normative perspectives the effectiveness of these directives at the national level It provides by far the most extensive comparative analysis and evaluation of the industrial permitting and inspections EIA and major accident prevention in the EU Offering an in depth study of the transposition and implementation of EC environmental directives in eight EU member states Denmark France Germany Italy the Netherlands Spain Sweden and the United Kingdom the author who has played a significant role in the formulation of environmental legislation and regulation at both the national German and EU levels and provides a stable base for an assessment of the benefits and costs of the integrated approach to environmental protection Among the factors considered are the following key features of national constitutional administrative and judicial systems which provide the framework for environmental regulations and their implementation in the eight countries under study procedures and substantive requirements transposing the IPPC EIA and Seveso II directives into national laws and evaluation of national deficiencies and the extent of muddling through The empirical part of Dr Bohne s analysis draws on 138 expert interviews with public and private actors a survey of 178 public authorities and document analyses of selected industrial permits and environmental impact statements His comparative analysis of procedural organizational and substantive integration makes it possible to identify and compare national accomplishments in regulatory integration and offers new insights into the effectiveness and limits of EC law The study concludes with a discussion of the implications of the findings for European governance and better regulation after the enlargement of the EU This thoroughly researched rigorous and insightful study will be of great interest and value to policymakers regulators business people environmental NGOs consultants and lawyers as well as to students of environmental policies and European governance
