Landfall Vintage International:

Landfall Nevil Shute, 2010-07-13 When Jerry Chambers a young coastal patrol pilot during World War II is accused of mistakenly sinking a British submarine he is reprimanded and sent to a remote posting to test an experimental new bomb a dangerous mission far away from the woman he loves While Jerry risks his life his sweetheart Mona sets about trying to clear her lover's name before it is too late

Pied Piper Nevil Shute, 2010-08-24 One of Nevil Shute's most exciting novels Pied Piper is the gripping story of one elderly man's daring attempt to rescue a group of children during the Nazi invasion of France It is the spring of 1940 and John Sidney Howard wants nothing more than to enjoy his fishing holiday in southern France in peace and quiet However the Nazi conquest of the Low Countries puts an end to that and he is asked by friends to take their two children back to England Crossing France with his young charges seems simple enough at first until the Germans invade rendering them fugitives As Howard struggles to sneak across France he picks up several more helpless children of various nationalities They walk for miles in an endless river of refugees strafed by German planes and hiding in barns at night By the time Howard and his flock of little ones reach the Channel his plan of escaping on a fishing boat has become utterly impossible and in their final confrontation with the invaders all their lives are at stake

The Breaking Wave Nevil Shute, 2010-08-24 The Breaking Wave is one of Nevil Shute's most poignant and psychologically suspenseful novels set in the years just after World War II Sidelined by a wartime injury fighter pilot Alan Duncan reluctantly returns to his parents remote sheep station in Australia to take the place of his brother Bill who died a hero in the war But his homecoming is marred by the suicide of his parents parlormaid of whom they were very fond Alan soon realizes that the dead young woman is not the person she pretended to be Upon discovering that she had served in the Royal Navy and participated along with his brother in the secret build up to the Normandy invasion Alan sets out to piece together the tragic events and the lonely burden of guilt that unravelled one woman's life In the process of finding the answer to the mystery he realizes how much he had in common with this woman he never knew and how a war can go on killing people long after it's all over

Flight International, 1978 On the Beach Nevil Shute, 2010-02-09 The most shocking fiction I have read in years What is shocking about it is both the idea and the sheer imaginative brilliance with which Mr Shute brings it off THE SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE They are the last generation the innocent victims of an accidental war living out their last days making do with what they have hoping for a miracle As the deadly rain moves ever closer the world as we know it winds toward an inevitable end

The Ship of Dreams Alistair Fox, 2008 This is the first critical study to investigate at length how masculine subjectivities are represented in contemporary New Zealand fiction Notoriously self-contained and private Kiwi men are often reluctant to talk about their personal feelings and embarrassed at the thought that any private emotional difficulties could be exposed to critical examination One must go to their imaginative literature to make contact with the reality that underlies the often calculatedly deceptive surface In his investigation of these issues author Alistair Fox demonstrates the crucial importance of Pakeha and Maori cultural predispositions influencing masculine identity in New Zealand often at the cost of great psychic pain for the men involved The Empires' Edge Sasha Davis,2015 Based on a decade of research The Empires Edge examines the tremendous damage the militarization of the Pacific has wrought and contends that the great political contest of the twenty first century is about the choice between domination or the pursuit of a more egalitarian and cooperative future Postcolonial Pacific Writing Michelle Keown,2004-12-17 This major new interdisciplinary study focuses on the representation of the body in the work of eight of Polynesia s most significant contemporary writers Drawing on anthropology psychoanalysis philosophy history and medicine Postcolonial Pacific Writing develops an innovative postcolonial framework specific to the literatures and cultures of this region The River House Angela R. Newland,2023-05-08 Engineer Victoria and her husband Kevin purchased the house of their dreams on the Caloosahatchee River in Southwest Florida in 2016 Although the house was over forty years old the couple happily endured various home repair and improvement projects knowing that the stunning beauty of the home s location was well worth any aggravation Their blissful state of mind was shattered less than a year after they purchased the property when Hurricane Irma paid an unwelcome visit The hurricane s horrific damage to their beloved home was only the beginning of their agonies The tense saga of dealing with a dysfunctional property insurance company was then superseded by the convoluted process for getting their house reconstructed to the current building code The cliffhanger ending is followed by lessons learned that are beneficial to anyone living in a hurricane prone area Art ... Chicago at Navy Pier ,2009 Studio International ,1975 The Best of Albert Wendt's Short Stories Albert Wendt,2013-12-16 A collection of classic short stories from the award winning author Albert Wendt acknowledged as one of the Pacific s major writers Albert Wendt s short stories providing a complex and profound understanding of people and the world have been read and praised in New Zealand the Pacific and internationally This collection brings together his classic stories published in the Flying Fox in a Freedom Tree and the Birth and Death of the Miracle Man and Other Stories together with exciting previously uncollected work his stories have the tone of timeles and very savvy fables New York Times A writer of international importance Landfall Boating ,1976-01 Urban Land ,2002 Pockets of Change Jane Stadler,Peta Mitchell,Adam Atkinson,Tricia Hopton,2011-04-29 The twelve essays collected in Pockets of Change locate adaptation within a framework of two overlapping if not simultaneous creative processes on the one hand adaptation is to be understood as an acknowledged transposition of an existing source that is the process of adapting from on the other hand adaption is also a process of purposeful shifting and evolving of creative practices in response to external factors including but not limited to other creative works in other words the process of adapting to This book explores adaptation then as an active practice of repetition and as a reactive process of development or evolution The essays also extend beyond the production transformation and interpretation of texts to interrogate the values and practices at work in cultural transition and transformation during periods of social and historical change Collectively the papers theorize adaptation by taking on three tasks first to examine the conditions under which the two processes of adaptation operate second to give an account of the space and moment in which the processes unfold the pockets of the title and finally to examine what emerges from pockets of adaptation While adapting from and adapting to are both processes that appear to preclude innovation in the way that they acknowledge and depend on external sources Pockets of Change demonstrates that adaptation is productive It not only references prior texts attitudes practices and media but it also invites us to re visit the past and to re think the present in new ways potentially giving narrative space to muted or occluded voices This book therefore brings together an innovative and varied range of approaches to interpretations and uses of adaptation challenging the assumption that an adaptation is simply either a re make or the act of turning one medium into another Adaptation then names not only the means by which texts are transformed but also the space in which that transformation takes place T

The Oxford History of New Zealand Literature in English Terry Sturm,1998 This is the most comprehensive history of New Zealand literature to have been published It offers chapters on the novel poetry and on the short story which have been the staple of earlier histories and surveys as well as sections on drama non ficition children s literature popular literature and the history of publishing patronage and literary magazines In this major new edition material is provided on the period from 1986 1996 and a new chapter has been included on literary scholarship criticism and theory

Meeting the Enemy Natsu Taylor Saito,2012-06 Since its founding the United States has defined itself as the supreme protector of freedom throughout the world pointing to its Constitution as the model of law to ensure democracy at home and to protect human rights internationally Although the United States has consistently emphasized the importance of the international legal system it has simultaneously distanced itself from many established principles of international law and the institutions that implement them In fact the American government has attempted to unilaterally reshape certain doctrines of international law while disregarding others such as provisions of the Geneva Conventions and the prohibition on torture America s selective self exemption Natsu Taylor Saito argues undermines not only specific legal institutions and norms but leads to a decreased effectiveness of the global rule of law Meeting the Enemy is a pointed look at why the United States frequent if selective disregard of international law and institutions is met with such high levels of approval or at least complacency by the American public

Sport Diver ,1997-07 Intercultural Communication Ingrid Piller,2017-06-27

Combining perspectives from discourse analysis and sociolinguistics the second edition of this popular textbook provides students with an up to date overview of the field of intercultural communication Ingrid Piller explains communication in context using two main approaches The first treats cultural identity difference and similarity as discursive constructions The second informed by bilingualism studies highlights the use and prestige of different languages and language varieties as well as the varying access that speakers have to them

Brothers and Sisters Craig LaRon Torbenson,Gregory Parks,2009 The 1950s are arguably the watershed era in the civil rights movement with the landmark Supreme Court decision of Brown v

Board of Education in 1954 the Montgomery Bus Boycott in 1955 and the desegregation of Little Rock Arkansas High School in 1957 It was during this period 1955 to be exact that sociologist Alfred M Lee published his seminal work Fraternities without Brotherhood A Study of Prejudice on the American Campus Lee s book was the first and last book to explore diversity within college fraternal groups More than fifty years later Craig L Torbenson and Gregory S Parks revisit this issue more broadly in their edited volume Brothers and Sisters Diversity in College Fraternities and Sororities This volume draws from a variety of disciplines in an attempt to provide a holistic analysis of diversity within collegiate fraternal life It also brings a wide range of scholarly approaches to the inquiry of diversity within college fraternities and sororities It explores not only from whence these groups have come but where they are currently situated and what issues arise as they progress
