From Southern Theory to Decolonizing Sociolinguistics Ana Deumert, Sinfree Makoni, 2023-07-07 This book which combines scholarly articles with interviews seeks to imagine a decolonized sociolinguistics. All the chapters are firmly grounded in southern approaches to knowledge production focusing not only on epistemology but also on the complex relationship between epistemology and ontology. The chapters address issues ranging from author positionality to the central theorists of a southern sociolinguistics and roam from the language classroom to the church in ways which invite us to begin to decolonize ourselves and rethink normative assumptions about everything from academic writing to research methods and language teaching. The book provides scholars and teachers with inspiration for how to teach linguistics in ways that challenge colonial hegemonies and that allow one to do sociolinguistics otherwise. It also makes a powerful argument that debates about decolonization, southern theory and social justice are not just academic pursuits; what is at stake is our future and how we imagine it.

The Origins of Ethnic Conflict in Africa Tsega Etefa, 2019-02-01 From Darfur to the Rwandan genocide, journalists, policymakers and scholars have blamed armed conflicts in Africa on ancient hatreds or competition for resources. Here Tsega Etefa compares three such cases: the Darfur conflict between Arabs and non-Arabs, the Gumuz and Oromo clashes in Western Oromia and the Oromo-Pokomo conflict in the Tana Delta in order to offer a fuller picture of how ethnic violence in Africa begins. Diverse communities in Sudan, Ethiopia and Kenya alike have long histories of peacefully sharing resources, intermarrying and resolving disputes. As he argues, ethnic conflicts are fundamentally political conflicts driven by non-inclusive political systems, the monopolization of state resources and the manipulation of ethnicity for political gain coupled with the lack of democratic mechanisms for redressing grievances.
