Science, Religion and Society Arri Eisen, Gary Laderman, 2015-03-04 This unique encyclopedia explores the historical and contemporary controversies between science and religion. It is designed to offer multicultural and multi religious views and provide wide ranging perspectives. Science Religion and Society covers all aspects of the religion and science dichotomy from humanities to social sciences to natural sciences and includes articles by theologians, religion scholars, physicians, scientists, historians and psychologists among others. The first section General Overviews contains essays that provide a road map for exploring the major challenges and questions in science and religion. Following this the Historical Perspectives section grounds these major questions in the past and demonstrates how they have developed into the six broad areas of contemporary research and discussion that follow. These sections: Creation the Cosmos and Origins of the Universe, Ecology Evolution and the Natural World, Consciousness Mind and the Brain, Healers and Healing, Dying and Death and Genetics and Religion, organize the questions and research that are the foundation of the enormous interest and controversy in science and religion today.

Conceptualizations of Africa Abdul Karim Bangura, JP Afamefuna Ifedi, 2025-02-27 This book discusses how Africa has been understood and defined across various academic fields. Building on the influential works of Valentin Yves Mudimbe and more recent studies by Axel Fleisch and Rhiannon Stephens, this book bridges previous limitations by offering a comprehensive interdisciplinary analysis. Each chapter examines the conceptualization of Africa within a specific discipline, balancing local and global perspectives, blending competing viewpoints and providing suggestions for future research. The book will be essential for students, scholars and researchers interested in a better understanding of the diverse and complex narratives that shape our knowledge of Africa and its intellectual heritage.

Gerontechnology Jan A. M. Graafmans, Vappu Taipale, Neil Charness, 1998 This publication is concerned with gerontechnology, the study of technology and ageing with the aim of improving the functioning of older people in daily life. The first part of the book is a compilation of the key note addresses describing the background for and the conditions under which the emerging field of gerontechnology can be developed further. The chapters deal with political, socio-economic, ethical, demographic issues related to gerontechnology. Furthermore, methodological approaches in human factors, ergonomics and industrial design are described. Trends in technological developments and innovations conclude the first volume. The second part presents some 80 case studies divided over 9 sections: 1 perception and cognition, 2 communication technology, 3 mobility and transport, 4 health and home care technology, 5 housing, 6 training and education, 7 safety and security, 8 product design and 9 culture and attitudes.

Minority Rights and the National Question in Nigeria Uyilawa Usuanlele, Bonny Ibhawoh, 2017-03-18 This book offers a thematic study of key debates in the history of the ethnic politics, democratic governance and minority rights in Nigeria. Nigeria provides a framework for examining the central paradox in post colonial nation building projects in Africa: the tension between majority rule and minority rights. The liberal democratic model on which most African states were founded at independence from colonial rule and to which they continue to aspire is founded on majority rule. It is also founded on the protection of the rights of minority groups to political participation, social inclusion and economic resources. Maintaining this tenuous balance between majority rule and minority rights has in the decades since independence become the key national question in many African countries, perhaps none more so than Nigeria. This volume explores these issues focusing on four key themes as they relate to minority rights in Nigeria: ethnic and religious identities, nationalism and federalism, political crises and armed conflicts.

An Ethic of Hospitality Emily Jeptepkeny Choge, 2020-07-30

In our increasingly xenophobic world, countries are turning away refugees and immigrants. Based on the situation in Kenya, this book offers a countercultural ethic of hospitality and welcome to the stranger, an ethic fraught with dangers and yet filled with great opportunities for transforming our world. Drawing on the scriptural pilgrim motif and specifically on the book of Hebrews, this study paints a picture of refugees not only as needy strangers to be herded into camps but as brothers and sisters who bring with them treasures and talents that can enrich our understanding of our Christian identity and mission as pilgrims in the world. The hospitality practice seen in Hebrews offers hope and promise not only for refugees themselves but also for the pilgrim church. Like the ancient heroes of faith portrayed in Hebrews, we too live as pilgrims and aliens who await with hope the city whose architect and founder is God. Refugees, in fact, teach us how to live our pilgrim identity; they become teachers not only for the church in Kenya but also for the body of Christ worldwide.

Interdenominational Faith Missions in Africa Klaus Fiedler,2018-03-13 It was not the European and American churches which evangelised Africa but the mission societies The missions from the Great Awakening such as the London Missionary Society and Church Missionary Society or the Holy Ghost Fathers and the White Fathers which started the process of Sub Saharan Africa becoming a Christian continent are well known and documented Less known and less documented are the interdenominational faith missions which began in 1873 with the aim of visiting the still unreached areas of Africa North Africa the Sudan Belt and the Congo Basin Missions such as the Africa Inland Mission or Sudan Interior Mission gave birth to some of the big churches like ECWA in Nigeria and Africa Inland Church in Kenya It is the aim of this book to describe faith missions and their theology and to present an overview of the early development of faith missions insofar as they touched Africa      Introduction to the Study of Religion Nehemiah M. Nyaundi,2003      Great Books Written by Africans across the Academic Disciplines Emmanuel D. Babatunde,Abdul Karim Bangura,2022-07-04 This volume is the first text to provide a comprehensive account of the great books across the academic disciplines written by Africans born in the continent and those who became naturalized citizens of African countries These great books are those that have had a powerful important or affecting influence on the author of a chapter in this book as an individual and on society The books included here are mostly of the storytelling type and thus not representative of most of the academic disciplines This volume allows each contributor to write a chapter on a discipline showcasing five great books written by African authors Each selection is appraised and suggestions made by other experts in a discipline while every chapter entails an introduction to the topic a conceptual discussion of the discipline a book by book review of the five books and a conclusion and recommendations for research using the selected books
