Moi University Prospecties 2015:

Translating Transgressive Texts Pauline Henry-Tierney, 2023-12-22 Through close examination of references to gender identity female sexuality and corporeality this book is the first of its kind to shed light on the complexities of translating the recent transgressive turn in contemporary women's writing in French Via four case studies namely the translations into English of Nelly Arcan's Putain 2001 Catherine Millet's La Vie sexuelle de Catherine M 2001 Nancy Huston's Infrarouge 2010 and Nina Bouraoui's Garçon manqué 2000 this book explores how transgressive topoi such as prostitution anorexia matrophobia rape female desire and transgenderism are translated The book considers how auto-fictional female selves portrayed are displaced by translation at both a textual and paratextual level Combining feminist phenomenological perspectives on female lived experience with feminist translation theory this interdisciplinary study offers an insight into how the experiential is brought into language how it journeys via language into new cultural contexts via translation and creates a dialogical space in which the subjectivities of those involved author narrator protagonist translator become open to the porosity of encounters with alterity The volume will appeal to scholars in translation studies French Studies and gender and sexuality studies particularly those interested in feminist translation and literary translation
