

The background of the image is a photograph of a calm body of water under a twilight sky. The sky transitions from a deep blue on the left to a soft purple on the right. A single bright star or planet is visible in the upper left. Three small, white motorboats with dark canopies are floating on the water. The overall mood is peaceful and contemplative.

Moments Of Time:

So This Is Life Anne Manne,2014-03-24 So This Is Life is a wonderfully evocative account of youth that will surely take its place among the classics of Australian childhood At age seven after her parents marriage broke down Anne Manne travelled with her mother and sisters from Adelaide to the Central Victorian countryside to begin a new life So This Is Life is not a conventional memoir but a haunting and luminous account told through stories unexpected moments of epiphany where meaning suddenly and sometimes shockingly reveals itself Possessing an astonishingly faithful and vivid memory of the pain fear and joy of childhood a sensibility keenly alive to the beauty of the landscape the fellow creatureliness of animals and the comedy tragedy and dignity of the lives of the country folk she grew up among So This Is Life shows a powerful moral vision being shaped about the meaning of kindness and the desolation of grief It depicts worlds as far apart as the faded gentility of former goldfields wealth and the patriarchal spivvory of the country racetrack Full of inconsolable pain but also impish humour these stories sparkle like gems

Time on TV Lorna Jowett,Kevin Robinson,David Simmons,2016-06-22 From early examples such as Star Trek and Sapphire and Steel to more contemporary shows including Life on Mars and The Vampire Diaries time has frequently been used as a device to allow programme makers to experiment stylistically and challenge established ways of thinking Time on TV provides a range of exciting accessible yet intellectually rigorous essays that consider the many and varied ways in which telefantasy shows have explored this subject providing the reader with a greater understanding of the importance of time to the success of genre on the small screen

Space and Time in African Cinema and Cine-scapes Kenneth W. Harrow,2022-06-28 This book is the first of its kind to bring basic notions of contemporary physics to bear on African cine scapes In this book renowned African cinema scholar Kenneth W Harrow presents unique new ways to think about space and time in film with a specific focus on African and African diasporic cinema Through a series of case studies he explores how cinema creates and represents time and space and more specifically how a cinema centered in African landscapes and figures accomplishes this He reflects on the issues and problems posed by scientists when faced with the basic questions of what space and time are and their solutions or conclusions giving both film studies and African studies scholars access to new ways to formulate their thinking about African cine scapes Working beyond the limits of a framework based in a postcolonial and cultural understanding of time and space Harrow demonstrates how a scientific understanding of time and space can open up new approaches to African cinema and cinema in general A unique interdisciplinary book that encourages brand new ways to approach cinematic texts and specifically African cine scapes
