The findings speak to finding better ways to let patients bring relevant data to their doctors and make it more easily accessible. But they also have one important take-home message: Not to stop. The researchers are going to start doing more work, with other doctors, to make sure patients can get the most out of their data.

Bad Girls of the Arab World Nadia Yaqub, Rula Quawas, 2017-09-27 Women's transgressive behaviors and perspectives are challenging societal norms in the Arab world giving rise to anxiety and public debate. Simultaneously however other Arab women are unwillingly finding themselves labeled bad as authority figures attempt to redirect scrutiny from serious social ills such as patriarchy and economic exploitation or as they impose new restrictions on women's behavior in response to uncertainty and change in society. Bad Girls of the Arab World elucidates how both intentional and unintentional transgressions make manifest the social and cultural constructs that define proper and improper behavior as well as the social and political policing of gender, racial and class divisions. The works collected here address the experiences of women from a range of ages, classes and educational backgrounds who live in the Arab world and beyond. They include short pieces in which the women themselves reflect on their experiences with transgression, academic articles about performance, representation, activism, history and social conditions, an artistic intervention and afterwords by the acclaimed novelists Laila al Atrash and Miral al Tahawy. The book demonstrates that women's transgression is both an agent and a symptom of change, a site of both resistance and repression. Showing how transnational forces such as media discourses, mobility and confinement, globalization and neoliberalism as well as the legacy of colonialism shape women's badness, Bad Girls of the Arab World offers a rich portrait of women's varied experiences at the boundaries of propriety in the twenty-first century.

Comprendre la paralysie cérébrale et les troubles associés Danièle Truscelli, Michèle Mazeau, Finn Alain Svendsen, Georges Thuilleux, Philippe Toullet, Françoise de Barbot, Corinne Bernardeau, Elisabeth Cataix-Nègre, Isabelle Guillot, Néjib Khouri, Michel Le Métayer, Véronique Leroy-Malherbe, Stéphane Marret, 2017-09-12 Comprendre la paralysie cérébrale et les troubles associés est une refonte du livre précédent sur les infirmités motrices cérébrales. Son originalité réside dans le fait qu'il s'engage sur la voie du pronostic autant clinique qu'humain. L'approche médicale est large de l'atteinte neuromotrice orthopédique des troubles de la santé aux facteurs de dysfonctionnement psychologique et ou neuropsychologique. La recherche d'indices pronostiques dépend des éléments cliniques déjà validés et s'appuie aussi sur des connaissances scientifiques récentes comme la plasticité cérébrale. La parole donnée aux adultes en situation de handicap voire aux familles permet de suivre la pertinence de l'application des décisions thérapeutiques qu'ils ont vécues. Leurs témoignages indiquent leur dynamique pour trouver une qualité de vie personnalisée et leur volonté de trouver des contacts humains largis. Des textes complémentaires des références ainsi que des séquences vidéos montrant les divers aspects de la prise en charge en éducation et en chirurgie orthopédique sont proposés en ligne. Coécrit par des équipes multidisciplinaires et réfléchies par des médecins de médecine physique et de réadaptation, MPR, psychiatres, chirurgiens, éducateurs, psychologues, scientifiques, cet ouvrage a été coordonné par le docteur Danièle Truscelli.

Violences sexuelles et sport Olivier Coste, Philippe Liotard, 2024-06-11 Les violences sexuelles au même titre que les violences physiques ou psychologiques sont une réalité du milieu sportif dont la prise de conscience en France et dans le monde s'est faite grâce aux témoignages de sportives de haut niveau et des enquêtes médiatiques large échelle. Une recherche étendue sur les violences interpersonnelles montre que près de 14 % des adultes interrogés ont subi des violences sexuelles avant 18 ans lors de leur pratique sportive, les cas de violences de tout type tant proches de 30% chez les personnes issues de minorités ethniques ou LGBT et celles présentant un handicap ou pratiquant au niveau international. Ces violences sont parfois sous-tendues par une relation de pouvoir et de contrôle entre des entraîneurs et des sportifs ou des sportives, relation qui s'inscrit dans un contexte d'emprise systémique. Cet ouvrage propose une approche pluridisciplinaire inédite sur les violences sexuelles et de genre dans le champ du sport en les intégrant aux données disponibles sur d'autres violences et dans d'autres domaines. Les éléments abordés permettent au lecteur d'accroître l'efficacité de ses actions grâce à une meilleure compréhension des enjeux et des logiques de ces violences. L'établissement de plans d'action concertés, une structuration de l'écoute et de l'accompagnement, l'organisation de la prévention et de la formation de tous les acteurs et actrices du sport et de son cosystème. L'ouvrage est organisé en trois temps : définitions et mécanismes, accueil, écoute et signalement, formation et prévention. Coordonné par Olivier Coste et Philippe Liotard, l'ouvrage réunit plus d'une trentaine d'experts et d'expertes des violences. Il s'adresse aux spécialistes de la santé mentale, kinésithérapeutes, titulaires psychologues, l'entourage du sportif, d'entraîneurs, préparateurs physiques et mentaux, dirigeants de clubs, ainsi qu'aux sportifs et sportives et leurs parents. Il cible également toute personne intéressée par le sujet des violences sexuelles et des maltraitances et qui se trouve confrontée à ce problème dont parler reste difficile. Olivier Coste est médecin du sport et docteur d'université en biologie de la santé, médecin inspecteur en chef de santé publique et médecin conseiller de la DRAJES Occitanie Montpellier. Philippe Liotard est sociologue, anthropologue et historien du sport au laboratoire sur les Vulnérabilités et l'Innovation dans le Sport L.VIS de l'Université Claude Bernard Lyon 1.

The Female Face of Shame Erica L. Johnson, Patricia Moran, 2013-05-16. The female body with its history as an object of social control, expectation and manipulation is central to understanding the gendered construction of shame. Through the study of 20th century literary texts, The Female Face of Shame explores the nexus of femininity, female sexuality, the female body and shame. It demonstrates how shame structures relationships and shapes women's identities. Examining works by women authors from around the world, these essays provide an interdisciplinary and transnational perspective on the representations, theories and powerful articulations of women's shame.

Dissident Writings of Arab Women Brinda J. Mehta, 2014-03-14. Dissident Writings of Arab Women: Voices Against Violence analyzes the links between creative dissidence and inscriptions of violence in the writings of a selected group of postcolonial Arab women. The female authors destabilize essentialist framings of Arab identity through a series of reflective interrogations and contesting literary genres that include novels, short stories, poetry, docudramas, interviews and testimonials. Rejecting a purist literature-for-literature's-sake ethic, they embrace a dissident poetics of feminist critique and creative resistance as they engage in multiple and intergenerational border crossings in terms of geography subject matter language and transnationality This book thus examines the ways in which the women s writings provide the blueprint for social justice by voicing protest and stimulating critical thought particularly in instances of social oppression structural violence and political transition Providing an interdisciplinary approach which goes beyond narrow definitions of literature as aesthetic praxis to include literature s added value as a social historical political and cultural palimpsest this book will be a useful resource for students and scholars of North African Studies Postcolonial Studies Francophone Studies and Feminist Studies Orlan. New Critical Spaces in Transitional Justice Arnaud Kurze, Christopher K.

Lamont, 2019-01-10 Since the 1980s transitional justice mechanisms have been increasingly applied to account for mass atrocities and grave human rights violations throughout the world. Over time, post-conflict justice practices have expanded across continents and state borders and have fueled the creation of new ideas that go beyond traditional notions of amnesty, retribution, and reconciliation. Gathering work from contributors in international law, political science, sociology, and history, New Critical Spaces in Transitional Justice addresses issues of space and time in transitional justice studies. It explains new trends in responses to post-conflict and post-authoritarian nations and offers original empirical research to help define the field for the future.

Le Quatorzième Commandement

Segun Ibi Julius, 2022-11-10 En ces temps de confusion et de prcarit, il n'est pas toujours facile de trouver ses repères. De nombreuses personnes aspirent mener une vie paisible mais sont confrontées des vnelements et des activités dconcertants et inexplicables dans leur vie et leur foyer qu'elles ne peuvent justifier. Beaucoup dcrivent cette situation comme un combat contre des dmons internes, indisciplinés, tourmentés qui créent une dpendance voire des pensées suicidaires. Ces mauvais esprits importuns ne doivent pas être hbergés. Par la foi dans le Seigneur Jésus, ils peuvent être chassés. Dieu est notre dlivrance et notre salut. Le 14^e commandement est inspiré de preuves bibliques et dexpériences personnelles tablissant la ncessité de chasser rgulièrement les forces dmoniaques dans le quotidien du chrétien et de l'glise. De nombreuses personnes souffrent injustement parce qu'elles refusent que leurs maux aient une origine dmoniaque. En ouvrant leur esprit et leur cœur, la ncessité d'une purification rgulière et attentive, ils feront place au Saint-Esprit pour qu'il transforme et régne dans leur vie.

Mapping Queerness in Times of Uncertainty Arnaud

Kurze, Sarah Sturken, Steve Thwe, 2024-11-26 This book offers a new critical perspective on emerging and alternative spaces for emancipation within lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer LGBTQ communities. It considers these across various geographic regions and in times of social, political, and ecological uncertainty and change. The work delves into complex, often invisible spaces where queer communities navigate social, political, and ecological upheavals. Through a blend of critical theory, digital mapping, and rich case studies from regions like the Middle East, North Africa, Singapore, Poland, and Russia, the authors illuminate the intersecting challenges of neocolonial legacies, religious conservatism, and political repression. A must-read for scholars and advocates involved with human rights and LGBTQ organisations, this book provides a nuanced interdisciplinary perspective on the evolving landscapes of queer emancipation and resistance. As such, it will appeal to scholars and students of queer studies, political sociology, social inequality, international relations, global studies, international justice, development studies, and the digital humanities.
