acknowledge the valuable work he did in bringing to light the priceless original source material from which we can better understand the period In this two volume work first published in 1909 Phillips creates a portrait of the economic life of the South drawn from the details and minutiae found in legal contracts personal letters and diaries newspaper articles and editorials advertisements plantation records court records warrants and affidavits public notices city ordinances and other hard to find documents From the everyday realities of the usage of slave labor to the working conditions of poor whites to the daily routines and management of plantations what emerges is a unique on the ground perspective of the slaveholding era Excerpts from the table of contents of Volume II Slaveholding hard to avoid The breaking in of fresh Africans Discipline and riddance of refractory slaves Negro labor slow and careless The chase and capture of a slave stealer Motives and talents of runaway slaves The barbarism of slavery in the case of light mulattoes Violence toward masters and overseers Public opinion regarding free negroes The negro problem as affected by immigrants Texan attractions advertised Association of white and negro labor Jealousy of white artisans toward negro competition Light List ,1966 British Battleships 1914-18 (2) Angus Konstam,2013-12-20 In 1906 the Germans began building their own dreadnought fleet armed with larger guns word of which soon reached the British Admiralty This raised the spectre that the British dreadnought fleet would be outgunned and prompted the Admiralty to order the building of their own super dreadnoughts The first of these new dreadnoughts were laid down in 1909 and entered service three years later The British public supported this programme and the slogan we want eight and cannot wait became popular a reference to the building of eight of these super dreadnoughts Four more super dreadnoughts entered service in 1914 By then the Admiralty had developed a new programme of fast battleships armed with 15 inch guns These powerful warships entered service in time to play a part in the battle of Jutland in 1916 World War I broke out before the Royal Navy had fully evaluated these new warships and so lessons had to be learned through experience often the hard way Although none of these super dreadnoughts were lost in battle their performance at the battle of Jutland led to a re evaluation of the way they were operated Still for four years they denied control of the sea to the enemy and so played a major part in the final collapse of Imperial Germany Noninvasive Weight Determination of Stockpiled Ore Through Microgravity Measurements Keith J.
