Chengdu, China, the capital of Sichuan, has left little doubt about its status as a major center for the production and distribution of counterfeit goods. In the past few years, the city has become a hub for the production and distribution of counterfeit goods, including counterfeit pharmaceuticals, counterfeit electronics, and counterfeit clothing. The city's location, its large population, and its proximity to the border with Tibet have all contributed to its status as a major center for the production and distribution of counterfeit goods.
