Devotional Fitness Martin Radermacher,2017-01-05 This book examines evangelical dieting and fitness programs and provides a systematic approach of this diverse field with its wide variety of programs When evangelical Christians engage in fitness and dieting classes in order to glorify God they often face skepticism This book approaches devotional fitness culture in North America from a religious studies perspective outlining the basic structures ideas and practices of the field Starting with the historical backgrounds of this current the book approaches both practice and ideology highlighting how devotional fitness programs construe their identity in the face of various competing offers in religious and non religious sectors of society The book suggests a nuanced and complex understanding of the relationship between sports and religion beyond simple functional equivalency It provides insights into the formation of secular and religious body ideals and the way these body ideals are sacralized in the frame of an evangelical worldview

Schererville Sandi Radoja,2022-10-17 When Schererville was plotted in 1866 founder and namesake Nicholas Scherer could not have imagined it becoming of the 100 Best Places to Live in the U S a distinction bestowed by Money magazine in 2007 Growth is partly attributed to the major highway routes often based on Indian trails crisscrossing the region Radoja credits the Schererville Historical Society archives as invaluable in the development of this book adapted from back cover

Walk the Wild With Me Rachel Atwood,2020-11-24 In this new historical fantasy a young man must use the power granted by a goddess to infiltrate the realm of Faery and save a kidnapped victim before the door is sealed once again Orphaned when still a toddler Nicholas Withybeck knows no other home than Locksley Abbey outside Nottingham England He works in the scriptorium embellishing illuminated manuscripts with hidden faces of the Wild Folk and whimsical creatures that he sees every time he ventures into the woods and fields His curiosity leads him into forbidden nooks and crannies both inside and outside the abbey and he becomes adept at hiding to stay out of trouble On one of these forays Nick slips into the crypt beneath the abbey There he finds an altar older than the abbey s foundations ancient when the Romans occupied England Behind the bricks around the altar he finds a palm sized silver cup The cup is embellished with the three figures of Elena the Celtic goddess of crossroads sorcery and cemeteries He carries the cup with him always listening as the goddess whispers wisdom in the back of his mind With Elena s cup in his pocket Nick can see that the masked dancers at the May Day celebration in the local village are actually the creatures of the wood The Green Man known to mortals as Little John and Robin Goodfellow Herne the Huntsman dryads trolls and water sprites Theirs are the faces he s seen and drawn into his illuminations Guided by Elena along secret forest paths Nick learns that Little John s love has been kidnapped by Queen Mab of the Faeries The door to the Faery mound will only open when the moons of the two realms align That time is fast approaching Nick must release Elena so that she can use sorcery to unlock that door allowing Nick s band of friends to try to rescue the girl Will he have the courage to release her as his predecessor did not

The Evangelical Church at the Crossroads of Secular Culture and Change Dr. Arnold O. Thompson, 2025-03-28 This book lays out in clear biblical and specific ways how the kingdom of God can effectively intersect with the kingdom of this world The author first laid out the dark forces in the churches engagement in the so called cultural wars like storm force winds blowing at the doors of the church to influence its message change its historical methods corrupt its mission It identifies the crises in all three areas The author contends that by and large the so called cultural wars waged by sections of the evangelical church have been lost in the real mission of the Christian church The book does not linger long here but rigorously lays out the biblical mandate and methods for the church to regain its purpose and mission of Christ in the world This is the goal of this book From the start the author understood this was an extensive undertaking to stand like John on the island of Patmos looking at visions of the modern church and to write a manifesto as if to say for God I see you I see what a large and influential segment of the church is doing which I contend is hurting the cause of Christ and His Gospel today But also to say that I see what is needed to again influence the culture to turn to Christ To give as did John a clear voice to defy the confusions and uncertainties and communicate effectively the Gospel of Christ to a lost world This goal would seem impossible to see a revival of the Gospel in secular culture like the great revivals of the past Except the ancient prophets said as did Peter in the revival of Pentecost In the last days God says I will pour out my Spirit on all people Your sons and daughters will prophesy your young men will see visions your old men will dream dreams Acts 2 17 This book is a dream path to the reality of a revival of the Gospel in our times

Science at the Cross Roads (Routledge Revivals) N. I. Bukharin et al., 2013-11-05 The papers given by the Soviet Delegation to the Second International Congress of the History of Science and Technology in London in 1931 headed by N I Bukharin exerted a profound influence on Western historiography of science Perhaps the most influential contribution was that of Hessen who made a long and classical statement of Marxist historiography taking Isaac Newton as his example The collection which appeared in Britain at the height of the Depression fostered an acute social awareness and a heated debate among many working scientists Accredited by some as the starting point of a new evaluation of the history of science the book reflects the huge social and economic divide between Socialism and Capitalism present at the time of publication and its influence on intellectual culture and scientific advancement

Believing God Devotional Journal Beth Moore,2004-09 Is it working Your belief system that is Is it really working God s intention all along has been for the believer s life to work From divine perspective toward terrestrial turf God meant for his children to succeed Are our Christian lives successful Are they achieving and experiencing what Scripture said they would In a recent sermon my son in law preached Curt told us the only way we were going to impact the world and the next generation is to prove that our faith in Christ is real and that it works For countless Christians I m convinced it s real My concern is whether or not we have the fruit to suggest it works Beth Moore Believing God

A Bed Called Home Mamphela Ramphela,1993 In the last three years the migrant labor hostels of South Africa particularly those in the Transvaal have gained international notoriety as theaters of violence For many years they were hidden from public view and neglected by the white authorities Now it seems hostel dwellers may have chosen physical violence to draw attention to the structural violence of their appalling conditions of life Yet we should not lose sight of the fact that the majority of hostel dwellers are peace loving people who have over the years developed creative strategies to cope with their impoverished and degrading environment In this challenging study Dr Mamphela Ramphele documents the life of the hostel dwellers of Cape Town for whom a bed is literally a home for both themselves and their families Elaborating the concept of space in its many dimensions not just physical but political ideological social and economic as well she emphasizes the constraints exerted on hostel dwellers by the limited spaces they inhabit At the same time she argues that within these constraints people have managed to find room for manoeuvre and in her book explores the emancipatory possibilities of their environment The text is illustrated with a number of black and white photographs taken by Roger Meintjes in the townships and hostels
