The Muslim Brotherhood Carrie Rosefsky Wickham, 2015-05-26 How the Muslim Brotherhood rose to power in Egypt and what it means for the Islamic world Following the Arab Spring the Muslim Brotherhood achieved a level of influence previously unimaginable Yet the implications of the Brotherhood s rise and dramatic fall for the future of democratic governance peace and stability in the region are disputed and remain open to debate Drawing on more than one hundred in depth interviews as well as Arabic language sources never before accessed by Western researchers Carrie Rosefsky Wickham traces the evolution of the Muslim Brotherhood in Egypt from its founding in 1928 to the fall of Hosni Mubarak and the watershed elections of 2011 2012 Highlighting elements of movement continuity and change Wickham demonstrates that shifts in Islamist worldviews goals and strategies are not the result of a single strand of cause and effect and provides a systematic fine grained account of Islamist group evolution in

Egypt and the wider Arab world In a new afterword Wickham discusses what has happened in Egypt since Muhammad Morsi was ousted and the Muslim Brotherhood fell from power Violence and Social Transformation in Libya Virginie Collombier, Wolfram Lacher, 2023 The definitive interdisciplinary volume on Libyan society's transformations over a decade of conflict and insecurity Soft Force Ellen Anne McLarney, 2015-05-26 The unheralded contribution of women to Egypt's Islamist movement and how they talk about women's rights in Islamic terms In the decades leading up to the Arab Spring in 2011 when Hosni Mubarak's authoritarian regime was swept from power in Egypt Muslim women took a leading role in developing a robust Islamist presence in the country's public sphere Soft Force examines the writings and activism of these women including scholars preachers journalists critics actors and public intellectuals who envisioned an Islamic awakening in which women's rights and the family equality and emancipation were at the center Challenging Western conceptions of Muslim women as being oppressed by Islam Ellen McLarney shows how women used soft force a women's jihad characterized by nonviolent protest to oppose secular dictatorship and articulate a public sphere that was both Islamic and democratic McLarney draws on memoirs political essays sermons newspaper articles and other writings to explore how these women imagined the home and the family as sites of the free practice of religion in a climate where Islamists were under siege by the secular state While they seem to reinforce women's traditional roles in a male dominated society these Islamist writers also reoriented Islamist politics in domains coded as feminine putting women at the very forefront in imagining an Islamic polity Bold and insightful Soft Force transforms our understanding of women's rights women's liberation and women's equality in Egypt's Islamic revival Arab Human Development in the Twenty-first Century Bahgat Korany, 2014 In addition to its emphasis on the primacy of change and dynamics rather than static snapshots this book looks critically at development studies and policies Originally prepared as the tenth anniversary volume of the UNDP's series of Arab Human Development Reports Arab Human Development in the Twenty first Century inventories existing knowledge to present an integrated and coherent report through the systematic application of its political economy framework It places empowerment at the centre of human development in the Arab world away from the dominant existing securocracy state Political and Constitutional Transitions in North Africa Justin Frosini, Francesco Biagi, 2014-12-05 The transformations which are taking place in the Arab world are dynamic processes characterised by a number of variables that one can refer to as actors and factors The implications of the Arab uprisings are important for the world at large the Arab world's successes and failures at this crucial moment may well serve as a model for other nations Political and Constitutional Transitions in North Africa focuses on five Northern African countries Tunisia Egypt Morocco Libya and Algeria examining specific institutions and actors participating in the political upheavals in North Africa since 2011 and placing them in a comparative perspective in order to better understand the processes at work This book addresses issues pertinent to North African and Middle Eastern Studies comparative constitutional law political science and transitional studies and it contains contributions by experts in all these fields Providing a significant contribution to the understanding of events that followed the immolation of Mohamed Bouazizi in Tunisia this book is a valuable contribution to North African Studies Middle Eastern Studies Comparative Constitutional Law and Transitional Studies

The Transformation of the Gulf David Held, Kristian Ulrichsen, 2013-03-01 This book examines the political economic and social transformation of the six member states of the Gulf Cooperation Council GCC and the ways in which these states are both shaping and being reshaped by the processes of globalisation Adopting a multidisciplinary approach the volume combines thematic chapters focusing on issues such as globalisation nationalism and identity political thinking and economic diversification and redistributive policymaking with empirical chapters studying specific aspects of reform and change the emergence of governing markets the rise of Sovereign Wealth Funds Islamic Finance the relationship between energy and sustainability trends in foreign aid donorship strategic and foreign policy formulation Contributions from experts in the field provide cutting edge snapshots of a region in flux and collectively offer a roadmap of its repositioning in the global order examining the interaction between global processes and internal dynamics of change and resistance that inject new dimensions into debates over the loci of local and global transformations and the manner in which each plays off the other Situating the Gulf States firmly within their global twenty first century context this book will hold particular appeal to theorists of globalisation as well as to scholars of comparative politics international political economy and area studies

North African Politics Yahia H. Zoubir, Gregory White, 2015-09-16 In the aftermath of the turmoil that shook North Africa in late 2010 and early 2011 commentators and analysts have sought explanations to the factors that triggered the uprisings and to understand why a region seemingly characterized by relative stability for decades would suddenly erupt in convulsions Had an underlying dynamism in the region overwhelmed what were ostensibly stable authoritarian regimes What were the connections to events and dynamics beyond the region such as countries in the Middle East international commodity markets and environmental factors amongst others Why had allies abetted authoritarianism for so long and what were the implications for such alliances North African Politics Change and continuity brings together experts to explore these questions providing in depth analyses of important developments in the region which build upon and complement the 2008 companion volume North Africa Politics Region and the Limits of Transformation This 21 chapter volume is a key contribution that responds to the need in the Anglo American sphere for sustained critical studies on North Africa and examines political economic security social and military aspects of the region Focused studies on individual countries allow detailed discussion of regional factors The book also examines extrinsic trans regional dynamics such as North Africa s influential interdependencies with the Levant and the Gulf Europe Sahelian and sub Saharan Africa and North America Its innovative approach provides new perspectives on North Africa extending its research scope to include Egypt and exploring China s evolving role in the region Providing an important contribution in the assessment of the ever shifting political and social tectonics within and beyond North Africa North African Politics is an essential resource for Humanitarian Intervention, Colonialism, Islam and Democracy Gustavo Gozzi, 2021-04-12 This book offers a critical analysis of the European colonial heritage in the Arab countries and highlights the way this legacy is still with us today informing the current state of relations between Europe and the formerly colonized states The work analyses the fraught relationship between the Western powers and the Arab countries that have been subject to their colonial rule It does so by looking at this relationship from two vantage points On the one hand is that of humanitarian intervention a paradigm under which colonial rule coexisted alongside humanitarian policies pursued on the dual assumption that the colonized were barbarous peoples who wanted to be civilized and that the West could lay a claim of superiority over an inferior humanity On the other hand is the Arab view from which the humanitarian paradigm does not hold up and which accordingly offers its own insights into the processes through which the Arab countries have sought to wrest themselves from colonial rule In unpacking this analysis the book traces a history of international and colonial law to this end also using the tools offered by the history of political thought The book will be of interest to students academics and researchers working in legal history international law international relations the history of political thought and colonial studies What's Wrong with NATO and How to Fix it Mark Webber, James Sperling, Martin A. Smith, 2021-03-16 NATO the most successful alliance in history is beset by unresolved tensions and divergent interests that are undermining its cohesion credibility and capability In this new book Mark Webber James Sperling and Martin Smith explore four key post Cold War developments that threaten NATO's survival an overextended geostrategic reach and an unwieldy security policy portfolio a failure to address capability shortfalls and meet defence spending benchmarks US weariness and European wariness that call NATO into question and intra alliance discord over Russia's place in the European security order and how to deal with Moscow's destabilization of Georgia and Ukraine The authors propose in response a range of policy options that could reinvigorate NATO but conclude with a note of caution Alliances come and go and most are cast into the dustbin of history If NATO is to avoid this fate it must not only address the major problems that trouble it but also get to grips with future challenges to alliance cohesion and credibility from Brexit to the emerging contest with China

Understanding Southern Social Movements Simin Fadaee, 2016-02-12 Southern social movements have played an important role in shaping world history and politics Nevertheless scholarly literature on movements of the global South remains limited and restricted to testing the social movement theory which was developed in the North This Northern centric approach largely fails to provide a meaningful understanding of Southern movements because it is not directly applicable to the differing historical backgrounds culture and socio economic structures found in the South Much of the uniqueness and complexity of Southern social movements has therefore been overlooked This collection analyses recent events and developments in Southern social movements introducing well researched case studies from fifteen countries of the global South Arranged in two parts the volume examines firstly movements which focus on rights and quality of life issues and secondly the post 2011 wave of uprisings which started with Tunisian and Egyptian movements Contributing to ongoing discussions about the Northern centric nature of social movement theory and the social sciences more generally the authors enter into dialogue with the debate on local and national levels as well as globalizing processes Through an interdisciplinary approach this book broadens the theoretical and empirical perspectives for the study of social movements and will appeal to sociologists political scientists scholars and students of social movements and social activists

Sectarianism and Civil War in Syria Raymond Hinnebusch, Morten Valbjørn, 2025-04-14 As an epicentre of sectarian conflict before and after the Arab uprising Syria provides an excellent laboratory for the study of sectarianization This book compares variance in Syria's sectarianism over time and across place to expose its causes and its varying impact on Syria's society and polity The book begins with an introductory chapter examining key approaches to and debates over sectarianism in Syria from which a framework of analysis is derived Subsequent empirical chapters are divided into two sections Several chapters examine key aspects of sectarianism at the national level looking at the interaction of sectarianism and state formation over the long term the internal evolution of sectarianization during the uprising the impact of the regional power struggle on Syria's sectarianization and whether sectarianism was institutionalized by civil war governance in both regime and opposition controlled areas A second set of chapters looks at sectarianism in Syria's different cities regions and communities notably in Damascus Homs Hama Aleppo

Idlib the Alawi coast and the Druze and Christian communities The concluding chapter makes use of the analytical framework to systematically compare the evidence from the empirical cases in order to identify regularities Providing nuanced insights into the Syrian case whilst informing broader theoretical discussions of sectarianism this book will appeal to students researchers and general readers interested in Middle Eastern politics and political science generally

Local Governance and Development in Africa and the Middle East Khadija Darmame, Eric Ross, 2024-07-25 This edited volume surveys how current local governance policies and development strategies across Africa and the Middle east are advancing Sustainable Development Goals SDGs Morocco s recent experience with local development strategies serves as starting point for the discussion Over the past decade Morocco has undertaken a variety of initiatives aimed at reducing poverty and social inequalities and providing essential services to marginalized communities These initiatives provide great opportunities to reshape the spatial organization of regions and to address chronic local issues of infrastructure and investment Local governance is the most direct way of providing basic services to populations helping to alleviate socio spatial inequalities Also it is and will continue to be the best way to engage people and local governments in economic social and human development agendas However placing local governance at the heart of development strategies requires going well beyond participatory approaches to policy making Local communities and their governments need to be empowered As responses to the Covid19 epidemic have laid bare new and more efficient modes of territorial governance are needed at local and regional levels if current global scale challenges are to be met While development and governance strategies like Morocco s are framed by global agreements and standards there is a need to understand them at the regional scale Are there discernible patterns in how African and Middle Eastern countries design and implement them This volume assembles case studies from across the region allowing for understandings that transcend the usual spatial dichotomies between North and Sub Saharan Africa between Africa and the Middle East and between the Anglophone and Francophone spheres The volume builds upon an international conference on the topic held at Al Akhawayn University in Ifrane Morocco Morocco in February of 2022 The volume is aimed at a readership of researchers and development practitioners and will be of most direct benefit to advanced undergraduate and graduate level students
