Carr v. General Motors Corporation, 425 MICH 313 (1986) ,1986 74825 John S.,2011-05 John Stevens should have been a mortality statistic after 25 years of a life of alcoholic insanity As a child he endured the violence and chaos of alcoholism in his family and he chose to perpetuate those family traditions in his own marriage But today thirty five years later John lives a life which is rich vital and above all sober filled with friends music and service to others The story of his metamorphosis is a compelling saga a journey from the pit of addiction and degradation to a sane and useful life in recovery John offers his story as a testimonial to the transcendent power of faith trust and love to utterly transform a man s life As his tale reveals this can sometimes begin in a sudden and dramatic way on a fall walk through the bare trees of a still Minnesota woods General Motors World ,1929 McKnight V. Investigation of Un-American Activities in the United States United States. Congress. House. Committee on Un-American Activities,1956 Demolition Means Progress Andrew R. Highsmith,2016-12-30 Flint Michigan is widely seen as Detroit s Detroit the perfect embodiment of a ruined industrial economy and a shattered American dream In this deeply researched book Andrew Highsmith gives us the first full scale history of Flint showing that the Vehicle City has always seen demolition as a tool of progress During the 1930s officials hoped to renew the city by remaking its public schools into racially segregated community centers After the war federal officials and developers sought to strengthen the region by building subdivisions in Flint s segregated suburbs while GM executives and municipal officials demolished urban factories and rebuilt them outside the city City leaders later launched a plan to replace black neighborhoods with a freeway and new factories Each of these campaigns Highsmith argues yielded an ever more impoverished city and a more racially divided metropolis By intertwining histories of racial segregation mass suburbanization and industrial decline Highsmith gives us a deeply unsettling look at urban industrial America Boxer of the Year Elmo Hudson,2003-12-01 The benefits of this book is to inform the public how General Motors treat their black employees that files a Civil Rights complaint and lawsuit against them They will commit fraud and conspiracy before the courts This has been going on since August 19 1983 to the present This book is about all the pain and hardship I have to go through as a result of this ordeal This will inform the blacks of what to do and say And how they can be victorious against a large Corporation I have experience everything that I am talking about for twenty years and still trying to get some closure from this ordeal I have experience seeing a psychiatrist and psychologist since May 15 1985 I was taken off work in July of 1992 and was placed on total and permanent disability with Social Security This also tells about me leaving home and moving south to Arkansas and having to go to a all black school I also had to plow the white man field with two mules and a plow I also won several titles in Golden Gloves Boxing and was the number one boxer at one hundred and twenty six pounds featherweight here and I was nominated for all Army boxing I would say to pursue your goals until you get the justice you so deserve
