Geography Memo Paper 2 Grade 12 2014:

International Labor Migration and Livelihood Security in Nepal Knerr, Beatrice, 2017-07-11 As measured by its per capita income Nepal is one of the poorest countries in the world with large parts of its population trapped in poverty within a stunning but difficult to control natural environment Under these conditions since the wake of the 21st century international labour migration and the associated remittances of large amounts of foreign exchange have rapidly gained influence on the country's economic and social development triggered by internal disturbances in particular economic downturn and political upheavals as well as external dynamics which boosted an uprising international demand for unskilled labour While there is hardly any basic dissent about the short to mid term Positive growth effect for Nepal's economy surprisingly little is known about the consequences of this form of livelihood security at the individual household level apart from some anecdotal evidence although neither policy makers nor NGOs may effectively craft their strategies without considering this phenomenon This book was developed from an Alumni Workshop held in Kathmandu in 2015 where focusing on this knowledge gap wide ranging original research about the consequences of family members absence and the receipt of remittances was presented Moving on from this starting point the authors further elaborated their work to make it accessible to a broader public and exploitable as a resource for policy making and follow up research In addition this volume includes detailed facts and figures about outmigration from and inflow of remittances to Nepal With a view to long term development implications of international migration it also considers the gain of knowledge and access to international academic networks brought into the country by returned scholars The editor of the volume Beatrice Knerr is a professor of development economics affiliated to the University of Kassel Germany where until 2015 she was heading the Department of Development Economics Migration and Agricultural Policy DEMAP Afterwards she has served as guest professor at the Universidad Autonoma de Yucatan UADY in Merida Mexico and at the College of Economics of Hue University Vietnam Presently she is on contract with the Brawijaya University of Malang Indonesia where she is joining research projects on rural development and teaching various modules in the Economics Faculty As an expert in the implications of labour migration on the development of low to middle income countries she has published and edited around 30 books and 100 journal articles and book chapters

The Labor of Hope Harry Pettit, 2023-11-14 Technological advancements expanding education and unfettered capitalism have encouraged many around the world to aspire to better lives even as declines in employment and widening inequality are pushing more and more people into insecurity and hardship In Egypt a generation of young men desire fulfilling employment meaningful relationships and secure family life yet find few paths to achieve this The Labor of Hope follows these educated but underemployed men as they struggle to establish careers and build satisfying lives In so doing this book reveals the lived contradiction at the heart of capitalist systems the expansive dreams they encourage and the precarious lives they produce Harry Pettit follows young men as they engage a booming training recruitment and entrepreneurship industry that sells the cruel meritocratic promise that a good life is realizable for all He considers the various ways individuals cultivate distraction and hope for future mobility education migration consumption and prayer These hope filled practices are a form of emotional labor for young men placing responsibility on the individual rather than structural issues in Egypt s economy Illuminating this emotional labor Pettit shows how the capitalist economy continues to capture the attention of the very people harmed by it

Museums, Refugees and Communities Domenico Sergi,2021-04-20 Museums Refugees and Communities explores the ways in which museums in Germany The Netherlands and the UK have responded to the complexities and ethical dilemmas involved in discussing the reasons for and issues surrounding contemporary refugee displacements Building upon an ethnographic study carried out in the UK with refugees from the Democratic Republic of Congo the book explores how object led approaches can inspire new ways of thinking about and analysing refugees experiences and European museums work with their communities Enlarging the developing body of research on museums increasing engagement with human rights and focusing in particular on the social cultural and practical dimensions of community engagement practices with refugees the book also aims to inform growing debates on museums as sites of activism Museums Refugees and Communities offers an innovative and interdisciplinary examination of museum work with and about refugees As such it should appeal to researchers academics and students engaged in the study of museums heritage migration ethics community engagement culture sociology and anthropology

Reforming New Orleans Peter F. Burns,Matthew O. Thomas,2016-02-19 In Reforming New Orleans Peter F Burns and Matthew O Thomas chart the city s recovery and assess how successfully officials at the local state and federal levels transformed the Big Easy in the wake of Hurricane Katrina

Contemporary African American Families Dorothy Smith-Ruiz,Sherri Lawson Clark,Marcia Watson,2016-10-04 For decades the black community has been perceived both in the United States and around the world as one which thinks alike acts alike and lives alike in poor and downtrodden environments Following the persistent effects of the great recession and the American elections of 2008 now more than ever the political and socio economic state of America is crying out for this deficient and prejudiced conception to be dispelled Focusing primarily on black families in America Contemporary African American Families updates empirical research by addressing various aspects including family formation schooling health and parenting Exploring a wide class spectrum among African American families this text also modernizes and subverts much of the research resulting from Moynihan s 1965 report which arguably misunderstood the lived experiences of black people during the movement from slavery to freedom in a Jim Crow society A timely subversion of the myth that America is successfully in a post racial era this new anthology on the Black Family in America will appeal to advanced undergraduate students and research scholars interested in black studies Africana studies women and gender studies sociology political science anthropology criminal justice education psychology public policy healthy policy and social work

America's Moment Rework America,2015-06-15 It is time for a new conversation Amid the biggest economic transformation in a century the challenge of our time is to make sure that all Americans benefit from the wave of digital revolutions around the world that have permeated and upended modern life Yet today s economic arguments seem stuck We need a new vision of a hopeful future and a new action agenda So many Americans are uncertain about the future How can there be so many paths to opportunity with so few people traveling them As a nation we have to understand what is required to help Americans succeed now and how to prepare our country for what comes next We have been here before A hundred years ago America experienced the greatest economic transformation and technological revolution in its history The transformation of the past twenty years as the world has moved through the information era into the digital age has turned our life and work upside down once again It is a time of tremendous change but also of tremendous possibility Rework America is a group of American leaders who know from experience the challenges we face and the potential solutions In America s Moment they suggest a practical agenda for an exciting future It is illustrated by people who are already showing the way and includes actions Americans can take today in their own communities preparing people to succeed using the reach of the Internet and data to innovate jobs and to reach new markets all over the world using technology to match employers and workers and transitioning to a no collar working world neither blue collar nor white collar Set against the history of how Americans succeeded once before in remaking their country America s Moment is about the future It describes how the same forces of change technology and a networked world can become tools that can open opportunity to everyone

Moved by the State Tina Loo,2019-06-01 Why don t they just move This reductive question is asked whenever reports surface of the all too common lack of social services and economic opportunities in Canada s rural and urban communities But why are certain people and places vulnerable And who is responsible for a remedy From the 1950s to the 1970s the Canadian government relocated people often against their will in order to improve their lives Moved by the State offers a completely new interpretation of this undertaking seeing it as part of a larger project of development and focusing on the bureaucrats and academics who designed implemented and monitored the relocations rather than on those who were uprooted In this finely crafted history Tina Loo explores the contradiction between intention and consequence as diverse communities across Canada were resettled In the process she reveals the optimistic belief underpinning postwar relocations the power of the interventionist state to do good

Asymmetric Crisis in Europe and Possible Futures Johannes Jäger,Elisabeth Springler,2015-04-10 The crisis in Europe is often discussed as a crisis of European integration or a crisis of national economies within Europe Both the methodological Europeanism and methodological nationalism miss out the important links between economic and political processes at different spatial scales within Europe and therefore asymmetries and phenomena of uneven development In addition a discussion of possible scenarios which systematically addresses the implications of anti crisis policies is missing This volume seeks to close this gap by systematically integrating the analysis of economic policy or technical solutions to the crisis within a broader framework of political economy It argues that combining critical political economy approaches and post Keynesian perspectives allows for a systematic understanding of the economic and political dimensions of the crisis Although both approaches have the capacity to deal with asymmetries and uneven development the heterogeneity in Europe has been an often largely neglected dimension of analysis However this recent crisis has shown that this is an essential dimension which has to be addressed in order to better understand the dynamics of European development and integration Hence this book aims to deal with asymmetries in Europe and to bridge the gap between the two perspectives This work will initiate an integrative debate that is crucial for a deeper understanding of the current crisis and is an important resource for all students and scholars of IPE European political economy and European politics Scientific American ,1890 The United States Catalog Marion E.
