Business and Management Education in Transitioning and Developing Countries John R McIntyre, Ian

Alon, 2014-12-18 Business education is a critical ingredient in establishing a viable middle class of managers in transitioning and developing economies Compiled in association with the Center for International Business Education and Research this comprehensive examination of business and management education pedagogical models and curricula innovations in institutions around the world is the first such work to emphasize emerging markets People's Republic of China-Hong Kong Special Administrative Region International Monetary Fund. Monetary and Capital Markets Department, 2014-07-16 This Financial Sector Assessment Program report on People's Republic of China Hong Kong Special Administrative Region highlights that it has developed a sound framework for the regulation of securities markets which exhibits a high level of implementation of the International Organization of Securities Commissions Principles Both the Securities and Futures Commission SFC and the Hong Kong Monetary Authority HKMA are sophisticated regulators and have been able to leverage from domestic and international expertise to develop sound supervisory practices Further while traumatic the Lehman minibond experience has led to material improvements in conduct supervision that have permeated both the SFC and the HKMA Continuing efforts by the SFC to build up its capacity to identify and monitor emerging risks should increase the SFC's ability to react in a timely manner to an evolving landscape marked by an increased interconnection with the Mainland China an active presence by international players and increased regional competition as an international finance center It is important to consider translating the operational independence that the regulators have enjoyed into de jure independence through modifications in the current legal governance arrangements for both SFC and HKMA The Certified HACCP Auditor Handbook, Third Edition ASQ's Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Division, 2014-01-14 This handbook is intended to serve as a baseline of hazard analysis critical control point HACCP knowledge for quality auditors HACCP is more than just failure mode and effect analysis FMEA for food it is a product safety management system that evolved and matured in the commercial food processing industry allowing food processors to take a proactive approach to prevent foodborne diseases Both the FDA and the USDA have embraced HACCP as the most effective method to ensure farm to table food safety in the United States This handbook also assists the certification candidate preparing for the ASQ Certified HACCP Auditor CHA examination It includes chapters covering the HACCP audit the HACCP auditor and quality assurance analytical tools

Directors' Decisions and the Law Alice Belcher, 2014-02-24 Directors are key decision makers in any organisation whether it is in the public sector a family business or a transnational company The UK Companies Act 2006 codified directors duties for the first time and describes the director as the most likely to promote the success of the company for the benefit of its members as a whole This book addresses key tensions and problems involved in the duties and responsibilities of the director in promoting success including corporate culture and credibility trust risk and uncertainty collective responsibility and the degree of control The book considers directors decision making in both private and public sector organisations and explicitly examines aspects of decision making during periods of financial distress The book compares the legal contexts of director s decisions in the UK to those of the USA Germany and Australia and takes an interdisciplinary approach in its combination of management theory economic theory and behavioural studies In doing so the book addresses issues key to the understanding of corporate governance in light of recent financial crises Reeds 21st Century Ship Management John
