Diaspora communities in Georgia North Carolina Maine Colorado Illinois and Indiana the eleven chapters in this volume describe what happens when host community conceptions of and policies toward newcomer Latinos meet Latinos own conceptions The chapters focus particularly on the processes of educational policy formation and implementation processes through which host communities and newcomer Latinos struggle to define themselves and to meet the educational needs and opportunities brought by new Latino students Most schools in the New Latino Diaspora are unsure about what to do with Latino children and their emergent responses are alternately cruel uninformed contradictory and inspirational By describing how the challenges of accommodating the New Latino Diaspora are shared across many sites the authors hope to inspire others to develop more sensitive ways of serving Latino Diaspora children and families The New Immigrant and the American Family Marcelo M.
