Critical Issues in Education Jack L.

Nelson, Stuart B. Palonsky, Mary Rose McCarthy, 2020-08-12 Critical Issues in Education examines three questions that are at the core of the education debate in the United States What interests should schools serve What knowledge should schools teach How do we develop the human environment of schools When answering these queries the authors advocate the use of critical thinking which includes dialogue and dialectic reasoning Dynamic and interactive dialogue requires listening and assessment while dialectic stimulates the development of a creative response that encompasses both sides of an issue When applied these approaches engender an informative and stimulating discussion In order to explore the depth of current educational issues the Ninth Edition considers 15 topics providing supporting evidence and reasoning for two divergent views These issues include violence in schools the role of technology gender equity multiculturalism inclusion and disability and school choice Both civic and professional discussions regarding improvements will have consequences for students teachers and society As a result educational views and the social landscape in which they reside deserve critical study

Corporate Governance Kenneth A. Kim, John R. Nofsinger, 2007 The first of its kind Nofsinger provides an overview of our corporate governance system in a flexible modular format Today the term corporate governance is familiar to almost everyone Unfortunately its familiarity in our society comes about because of revelations of one shocking corporate scandal after another executives caught pilfering from their firms accountants helping companies doctor their financial numbers analysts irresponsibly hyping internet stocks Nofsinger is organized into chapters that discuss each corporate governance mechanism Every chapter is organized in the same way and each chapter is self contained Each chapter begins with a detailed overview of the monitor or monitoring mechanism and then highlights potential problems Theory and practice of economic policy.
