Fighting Fraud and Corruption in the Humanitarian and Global Development Sector Oliver May,2016-05-12 There are an estimated 40 000 international Non Government Organisations NGOs working in an enormous global aid industry official development assistance alone reached 90bn in 2014 This is supplemented by huge voluntary giving the UK public for example give around 1bn a year to overseas causes These organisations face a unique challenge from fraud and corruption Operating in the world s most under developed and fragile environments with minimal infrastructure and trust based cultures the risk is high And being wholly reliant on donors and supporters for income so are the stakes Researchers make different estimates of the scale of the problem facing the sector Some research implies that losses to the global aid budget caused by occupational fraud and abuse may be in the billions of pounds while those to the British public s voluntary overseas donations could be in the tens of millions For many sector professionals working in the developing world these estimates are readily believable Fighting Fraud and Corruption in the Humanitarian and Global Development Sector by Oliver May is a timely accessible and relevant how to guide which explores the scale and nature of the threat debunks pervasive myths and shows readers how to help their NGOs to better deter prevent detect and respond to fraud and corruption Parliamentary Papers Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,1901 Torpedo Katherine C. Epstein,2014-01-01 When President Eisenhower referred to the military industrial complex in his 1961 Farewell Address he summed up in a phrase the merger of government and industry that dominated the Cold War United States In this bold reappraisal Katherine Epstein uncovers the origins of the military industrial complex in the decades preceding World War I as the United States and Great Britain struggled to perfect a crucial new weapon the self propelled torpedo Torpedoes threatened to upend the delicate balance among the world s naval powers they were bought and sold in a global marketplace and they were cutting edge industrial technologies But building them required substantial capital investments and close collaboration among scientists engineers businessmen and naval officers To address these formidable challenges the U S and British navies created a new procurement paradigm instead of buying finished armaments from the private sector or developing them from scratch at public expense they began to invest in private sector research and development The inventions emerging from torpedo R D sparked legal battles over intellectual property rights that reshaped national security law Torpedo blends military legal and business history with the history of science and technology to recast our understanding of defense contracting and the demands of modern warfare Union Casualties at Gettysburg Travis W. Busey, John W. Busey, 2011-12-14 This reference work chronicles and categorizes more than 23 000 Union casualties at Gettysburg by generals and staff and by state and unit Thirteen appendices also cover information by brigade division and corps by engagements and skirmishes by state by burial at three cemeteries and by hospitals Casualty transports incarceration records and civilian casualty lists are also included New Racial Landscapes Malcolm James, Helen Kim, Victoria Redclift, 2016-03-17 The chapters in this volume examine the racial and ethnic landscape of Britain in a contemporary era of neoliberalism and financial crisis A key aspect of neoliberal thought is the belief that we live in a post racial in which the problems of racism and xenophobia have been overcome However cultural retrenchment and coded xenophobia have been sweeping the political terrain accompanied by new racisms and new racial subjects that only close contextual analysis can unpick The scholarship contained in this collection challenges those who suggest that we live in a post racial time By focusing on particular locations in Britain at a particular moment the volume explores local stories of race and racism across changing sociopolitical ground This book is essential reading for scholars and students of race racism diaspora multiculturalism post colonialism transnationalism and post race This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies Annual Report of the Commissioner of Patents to the Secretary of Commerce for the Fiscal Year Ended ... United States.
