

MARK SCHEME for the May/June 2014 series

0452 ACCOUNTING

0452/21

Paper 2, maximum raw mark 120

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2014 series for most IGCSE, GCE Advanced Level and Advanced Subsidiary Level components and some Ordinary Level components.

Proceedings of AC 2018 in Prague Group of Authors,2018-08-07 International Academic Conferences in Prague August 10 13 2018 Beyond Greenwash Hamish van der Ven,2019-03-21 From green frogs and blue angels to white bunnies modern consumers are confronted by a growing array of colorful eco labels on everything from coffee to computers When eco labels are credible they can lead to dramatic change in environmental practices broadly and quickly by leveraging the purchasing power of corporate clients e g Walmart and McDonalds to influence global supply chains But the credibility of such labels is highly variable and despite the existence of established practices for eco labeling many labels remain little more than superficial exercises in greenwash How can consumers separate greenwash from genuine attempts to address environmental challenges Beyond Greenwash addresses this question by systematically investigating the credibility of transnational eco labeling organizations across countries and commercial sectors Using an innovative proxy measure for credibility that examines adherence to established best practices Hamish van der Ven proposes a novel theory of rigor and credibility in transnational eco labeling that upends conventional wisdom He argues that the credibility of an eco label does not depend on who creates or manages it whether a government industry association professional standard setter or environmental NGO Rather it depends on which types of businesses use the label More specifically eco labeling organizations that target bigger consumer facing retailers tend to create credible eco labels out of a desire to insulate their clients from critical scrutiny and gain acceptance in new markets This theory challenges the conventional wisdom that only governments or environmental NGOs can create meaningful environmental governance and suggests that who is being governed matters as much if not more than who is doing the governing

Specifications Grading Linda B. Nilson, 2023-07-03 In her latest book Linda Nilson puts forward an innovative but practical and tested approach to grading that can demonstrably raise academic standards motivate students tie their achievement of learning outcomes to their course grades save faculty time and stress and provide the reliable gauge of student learning that the public and employers are looking for She argues that the grading system most commonly in use now is unwieldy imprecise and unnecessarily complex involving too many rating levels for too many individual assignments and tests and based on a hairsplitting point structure that obscures the underlying criteria and encourages students to challenge their grades This new specifications grading paradigm restructures assessments to streamline the grading process and greatly reduce grading time empower students to choose the level of attainment they want to achieve reduce antagonism between the evaluator and the evaluated and increase student receptivity to meaningful feedback thus facilitating the learning process all while upholding rigor In addition specs grading increases students motivation to do well by making expectations clear lowering their stress and giving them agency in determining their course goals Among the unique characteristics of the schema all of which simplify faculty decision making are the elimination of partial credit the reliance on a one level grading rubric and the bundling of assignments and tests around learning outcomes Successfully completing more challenging bundles or modules earns a student a higher course grade Specs grading works equally well in small and large class settings and encourages authentic assessment Used consistently over time it can restore credibility to grades by demonstrating and making transparent to all stakeholders the learning outcomes that students achieve This book features many examples of courses that faculty have adapted to spec grading and lays out the surprisingly simple transition process It is intended for all members of higher education who teach whatever the discipline and regardless of rank as well as those who oversee train and advise those who teach Specification grading promotes the following values and outcomes It 1 Upholds High Academic Standards 2 Reflects Student Attainment of Skills and Knowledge 3 Motivates Students to Learn and to Excel 4 Fosters Higher Order Cognitive Development and Creativity 5 Discourages Cheating 6 Reduces Student Stress 7 Makes Students Feel Responsible for Their Grades 8 Minimizes
