Language And Reflection An Integrated Approach To Teaching English:

Language and Reflection Anne Ruggles Gere,1992 Reflective Practice in English Language Teaching Steve Mann,Steve Walsh,2017-06-27 Offering a unique data led evidence based approach to reflective practice in English language teaching this book brings together theory research and practice in an accessible way to demonstrate what reflective practice looks like and how it is undertaken in a range of contexts Readers learn how to do and to research reflective practice in their own settings Through the use of data dialogue and appropriate tools the authors show how reflective practice can be used as an ongoing teaching tool that supports professional self development Handbook of Research on Teaching Literacy Through the Communicative and Visual Arts James Flood,Diane Lapp,Shirley Brice Heath,2004-09-22 In an era characterized by the rapid evolution of the concept of literacy the Handbook of Research on Teaching Literacy Through the Communicative and Visual Arts focuses on multiple ways in which learners gain access to knowledge and skills The handbook explores the possibilities of broadening current conceptualizations of literacy to include the full array of the communicative arts reading writing speaking listening viewing and to focus on the visual arts of drama dance film art video and computer technology The communicative and visual arts encompass everything from novels and theatrical performances to movies and video games In today s world new methods for transmitting information have been developed that include music graphics sound effects smells and animations While these methods have been used by television shows and multimedia products they often represent an unexplored resource in the field of education By broadening our uses of these media formats and genres a greater number of students will be motivated to see themselves as learners In 64 chapters organized in seven sections teachers and other leading authorities in the field of literacy provide direction for the future I Theoretical Bases for Communicative and Visual Arts Teaching Paul Messaris Section Editor II Methods of Inquiry in Communicative and Visual Arts Teaching Donna Alvermann Section Editor III Research on Language Learners in Families Communities and Classrooms Vicki Chou Section Editor IV Research on Language Teachers Conditions and Contexts Dorothy Strickland Section Editor V Expanding Instructional Environments Teaching Learning and Assessing the Communicative and Visual Arts Nancy Roser Section Editor VI Research Perspectives on the Curricular Extracurricular and Policy Perspectives James Squire Section Editor VII Voices from the Field Bernice Cullinan and Lee Galda Section Editors The International Reading Association has compiled in the Handbook of Research on Teaching Literacy Through the Communicative and Visual Arts an indispensable set of papers for educators that will enable them to conceptualize literacy in much broader contexts than ever before The information contained in this volume will be extremely useful in planning literacy programs for our students for today and tomorrow Secondary English Teacher Education in the United States Donna L. Pasternak,Samantha Caughlan,Heidi L. Hallman,Laura Renzi,Leslie S. Rush,2017-12-14 Winner of the ELATE Richard A Meade Award 2018 Identifying key areas of teacher education that cross countries and disciplines this book provides the first extensive research based insight into how secondary English teachers are prepared at institutions of higher education in the United States of America US since the last major study in 1995 In the two decades since then English teacher education programs have developed in contextually dependent ways that often have been driven by institutional economic social and political considerations The authors provide an overview of their nationwide study of English teacher educators which was conducted over a four year period They analyze the context under which teacher educators currently prepare pre service English teachers in the US and support teacher educators in other countries to make comparisons to their own unique historical and cultural settings The authors also offer a comprehensive evaluation of the content practices and skills being taught to future teachers of English in university based teacher preparation programs in the US The book draws on evidence from a nationwide questionnaire case studies of teacher educators in their respective programs course syllabi and focus group interviews to focus on areas of instruction that resonate with teacher educators in countries where English is the dominant language of communication These areas include field experiences standards and assessment teaching literacy to integrate reading and writing working with English language learners to address cultural and linguistic diversity new technologies in English education

Resources in Education ,1998-10 Teaching the Canon in 21st Century Classrooms Michael Macaluso,Kati Macaluso,2018-11-01 The canon as much an ideology as it is a body of texts perceived to be intrinsic to the high school English classroom has come under scrutiny for maintaining status quo narratives about whiteness masculinity heterosexuality ability and even those associated with American ideals of self reliance the good life and the self made man Teaching practices around these texts may also reinforce harmful practices and ways of thinking including those connected to notions of culture literary merit and methods of reading teaching and learning Teaching the Canon in 21st Century Classrooms offers innovative critical ways of reading thinking about and teaching canonical texts in 21st century classrooms Responding to the increasingly pluralized digitized global 21st century English classroom chapter authors make explicit the ideologies of a canonical text of focus while also elaborating a pedagogical approach that de centers the canon bridges past and present applies critical theory and celebrates the rich identities of 21st century readers In using this book teachers will be especially poised to take on the canon in their classroom and thus to open up their curricula to ideas values concerns and narratives beyond those embedded in the canonical texts Metaphors and Macroinvertebrates; an Integrated Approach to the Exploration of Environmental Issues Deborah J. Kinder,1992 Learning from Scant Beginnings John V. Knapp,2008 Using the teaching of John Milton as a case study this book describes how a university English professor teaches an undergraduate course over a semester Employing a situated learning model the author describes the details of literary learning and student development Foundations of Braille Literacy Evelyn J. Rex,1994 This ground breaking text addresses the teaching of braille reading and writing in the context of general literacy Employing theoretical frameworks and approaches to teaching print reading and writing and practical applications for instruction in braille literacy this innovative book can be used both in university training programs and by practicing educators working with braille learners Foundations of Braille Literacy also includes perspectives on literacy the history of literacy for people who are blind the learning processes of people who are blind and assessment of braille literacy

Handbook of Instructional Practices for Literacy Teacher-educators Joyce E. Many, 2001-01-01 This volume offers a unique glimpse into the teaching approaches and thinking of a wide range of well known literacy researchers and the lessons they have learned from their own teaching lives The contributors teach in a variety of universities programs and settings Each shares an approach he or she has used in a course and introduces the syllabus for this course through personal reflections that give the reader a sense of the theories prior experiences and influential authors that have shaped their own thoughts and approaches In addition to describing the nature of their students and the program in which the course is taught many authors also share key issues with which they have grappled over the years while teaching their course others discuss considerations that were relevant during the preparation of this particular syllabus or describe how it evolved in light of student input The book is organized by areas within literacy education reading English language arts literature emergent literacy content area literacy literacy assessment and instruction literacy and technology and inquiries into literacy theory and classroom practice It is accompanied by an interactive Web site <http://msit.gsu.edu/handbook> This online resource provides additional information about the authors courses including complete syllabi recommended readings grading rubrics and sample assignments Readers are invited to respond and contribute their own syllabi and teaching experiences to the discourse generated by the volume

Possibilities, Challenges, and Changes in English Teacher Education Today Heidi L. Hallman, Kristen Pastore-Capuana, Donna L. Pasternak, 2019-05-24 This book focuses on English teacher educators experiences concerning professionalization and teacher identity The term professionalization itself can be problematized Popkewitz 1994 as it connotes adherence to realities to professional norms that are based within particular histories Yet teacher educators must confront how to mentor prospective teachers into the field and how changes to the field manifest changes to what it means to be a professional In research about changes in English teacher education over the past twenty years Pasternak Caughlan Hallman Renzi and Rush 2017 presented five distinct foci of ELA programs that have evolved 1 changes to field experiences within teacher education programs 2 altered conceptions of teaching literature and literacy within the context of ELA 3 increased adherence to standardization 4 changing demographics of students in K 12 classrooms and 5 increased expectations for use of technology within ELA These foci impact how professionals in ELA are viewed both from inside and outside the profession and how they navigate these tensions in teacher education programs to define what it means to identify as an English teacher Throughout the book chapter authors articulate dilemmas that focus around professionalization and teacher identity questioning what it means to be an English teacher today While some chapters suggest methods for increased awareness of tensions within practice other chapters approach

professionalization and teacher identity by asking what the limits of methods classes and teacher education might be in preparing ELA teachers and supporting them to remain in the profession Today s political environment devalues teachers and teaching a situation that has critics deriding the educational standards at institutes of higher education while concurrently lauding alternative programs that do not have to adhere to the same rigorous teacher certification requirements English teacher educators are now being asked to design programs soften requirements and recruit and mentor teacher candidates to a profession that in the past certified more new English teachers than it could employ The chapters in this book explore what it means to educate and be an English teacher educator under these conditions Theorizing Composition

Mary Kennedy,1998-06-25 The last 25 years have witnessed extraordinary growth in the academic specialization variously described as composition studies or rhetoric and composition What was noticeable about the field in its infancy was a preoccupation with practice a lack of emphasis on theory and an exclusive reliance on the writing process As its disciplinary status has grown the field has become far more theoretical Composition studies has expanded its focus reconceptualized the writing process and embraced a wide range of critical perspectives The result of this change is that terms such as poststructuralism social construction gender and genre which were largely unknown in 1965 now dominate discussion This reference book is a guide to the multiplicity of theories that have emerged to form the disciplinary foundation of composition studies The volume consists of 66 entries each of which is written by an expert contributor and focuses on a particular theory or group of theories While the entries show how various individuals have contributed to theoretical movements very few concentrate on the work of a single theorist Each entry first provides a critical summary of a particular theory or group of theories including key elements basic concepts and claims and information about seminal or particularly influential works It then reviews the theory s critical reception in composition studies and discusses its significance in the field The bibliography at the end of each entry lists primary texts and major scholarship related to the theory and provides additional suggestions for further reading The volume closes with a selected bibliography of important works Teacher Identity Discourses Janet

Alsup,2006-08-15 In this book Janet Alsup reports and theorizes a multi layered study of teacher identity development The study which followed six pre service English education students was designed to investigate her hypothesis that forming or failing to form a professional identity is central in the process of becoming an effective teacher This work addresses the intersection of various types of discourse within the process of professional identity development emphasizes that the intersection of the personal and professional in teacher identity formation is more complex than is acknowledged in typical methods classes and accents the need for teacher educators to take steps to facilitate such integration Specific suggestions for methods courses are presented that teacher educators can use as is or adapt to their own contexts Teacher Identity Discourses Negotiating Personal and Professional Spaces speaks eloquently to faculty researchers and graduate students across the field of teacher education Quiet Wisdom John Sylvester Lofty,2006 Textbook Teacher Voices in Chinese

Language Teaching Scott Smith, 2023-01-24 This book reports the results of an ethnographic study focusing primarily on the experiences of four teachers of the Chinese language in Australian secondary schools The author creates an audience for their voices as they reflect on their own understandings of culture language teaching and culture in language teaching through semi structured interviews and compares these reflections with written stimulus dialogues designed to elicit culture in language reflections as well as curriculum and policy documents produced by the Australian government The book s findings indicate that teachers of the Chinese language are diverse in their views on culture language teaching and the ways in which culture can or should inform language teaching and the author argues that language teacher intercultural competence cannot be assessed through a synthesis of the current English only research literature This book will be of interest to teachers and teacher trainers of Chinese as a foreign language as well as students and scholars of applied linguistics and language education more broadly Mastering The Craft Costain Tandi, Munyaradzi Mawere, Martin Mukwazhe, Alice Dhliwayo, 2024-04-17 This is a cutting edge textbook intended to equip college students in Zimbabwe and abroad with the requisite knowledge as well as skills for a successful and fulfilling career in teacher education This comprehensive resource goes beyond traditional pedagogical approaches offering a dynamic blend of theory and practical strategies to address the evolving landscape of 21st century classrooms From fostering inclusive environments and leveraging technology to promoting student engagement and applying effective assessment methods this textbook provides a holistic view of the teaching profession With insights from seasoned college lecturers the book guides aspiring teachers in developing their unique teaching philosophy and prepares them to navigate the diverse challenges of contemporary education Whether a novice in the field or a seasoned educator seeking professional growth this textbook is an indispensable tool for those dedicated to making an impact on the lives of students Nigerian Languages, Literatures, Culture and Reforms Ozo-mekuri Ndimele, 2016-04-30 The papers in this volume were selected from the Silver Jubilee edition of the Annual Conference of the Linguistic Association of Nigerian LAN which was held at the Nigerian Educational Research and Development Council NERDC Abuja Nigeria The Silver Jubilee edition is dedicated to the father of Nigerian Linguistics Professor Emeritus Ayo Bamgbose Professor Emeritus Bamgbose was the first indigenous Professor of Linguistics in Nigeria and the first black African to teach linguistics in any known university south of the Sahara He was there from the very beginning and together with co operation of people such as the late Professor Kay Williamson he nurtured Nigerian linguistics He is not just a foremost Nigerian linguist but also a most famous respected celebrated distinguished and cherished African linguist of all times To be candid Nigerian linguistics is synonymous with Professor Emeritus Bamgbose In 58 well written chapters by experts in their fields the book covers aspects of Nigerian languages linguistics literatures and culture The papers have not been categorized into sections rather they flow hence there is some overlapping in the arrangement The book is an essential resource for all who are interested to learn about current trends in the study of
