Muslim Identities and Modernity Maha Habib, 2016-03-16 What have the concepts of modernity and secularization meant for Islamic tradition culture and society How have the discourses which surround all of these issues influenced Muslim self perception and individual identity There have been many attempts to describe and analyse the encounter between Islam and modernity in the Middle East but few have been able so effectively to explore the impact this has on the idea and reality of religious identity and individual religiosity Maha F Habib examines modernity from this angle offering socio cultural philosophical and literary perspectives She assesses how this is played out in Egypt

analysing cultural changes in the country through its intellectual thought and literature from the nineteenth century to the present day Her references to the works of Muhammad Abdu Muhammad Husayn Haykal Abbas Mahmud al Aqqad Naguib Mahfouz Alaa al Aswany and Salwa Bakr reveal contemporary issues and concerns which will interest those researching the cultural and social milieu of modern Egypt Islamic Modernism, Nationalism, and Fundamentalism Mansoor

Moaddel,2005-05-16 A comparative historical analysis of the social changes that have affected the Islamic world in modern times of the failure to achieve consensus on important social issues such as the form of government the status of women national identity rule making Religion in Contemporary China Adam Yuet Chau,2010-12-21 This book provides a wide ranging and in depth survey of contemporary religious practices in China It explains how recent economic reforms and concurrent relaxation of religious polices have created fertile ground for the revitalization of a wide range of religious practices and relates this to larger issues of social and cultural continuity and change Re-enchanting Modernity

Mayfair Yang,2020-05-15 In Re enchanting Modernity Mayfair Yang examines the resurgence of religious and ritual life after decades of enforced secularization in the coastal area of Wenzhou China Drawing on twenty five years of ethnographic fieldwork Yang shows how the local practices of popular religion Daoism and Buddhism are based in community oriented grassroots organizations that create spaces for relative local autonomy and self governance Central to Wenzhou s religious civil society is what Yang calls a ritual economy in which an ethos of generosity is expressed through donations to temples clerics ritual events and charities in exchange for spiritual gain With these investments in transcendent realms Yang adopts Georges Bataille s notion of ritual expenditures to challenge the idea that rural Wenzhou s economic development can be described in terms of Max Weber s notion of a Protestant Ethic Instead Yang suggests that Wenzhou s ritual economy forges an alternate path to capitalist modernity Rorty, Buber and the Revival of Social Hope Akiba Jeremiah Lerner,2007

Reflections on Security in the Third Millennium Glen Segell,2000 The Blackwell Companion to Religion in America Philip Goff,2010-03-25 This authoritative and cutting edge companion brings together a team of leading scholars to document the rich diversity and unique viewpoints that have formed the religious history of the United States A groundbreaking new volume which represents the first sustained effort to fully explain the development of American religious history and its creation within evolving political and social frameworks Spans a wide range of traditions and movements from the Baptists and Methodists to Buddhists and Mormons Explores topics ranging from religion and the media immigration and piety though to politics and social reform Considers how American religion has influenced and been interpreted in literature and popular culture Provides insights into the historiography of religion but presents the subject as a story in motion rather than a snapshot of where the field is at a given moment Kierkegaard's Critique of Christian Nationalism Stephen Backhouse,2011-07-07 Christian nationalism refers to the set of ideas in which belief in the development and superiority of one s national group is combined with or underwritten by Christian theology and practice This study examines Kierkegaard s critique of Christian nationalism in relation to political science theories of religious nationalism Mapping Modern Mahayana Jens Reinke, 2021-01-18 This book presents a multi sited ethnographic study of the global development of the Taiwanese Buddhist order Fo Guang Shan It explores the order s modern Buddhist social engagements by examining three globally dispersed field sites Los Angeles in the United States of America Bronkhorstspuit in South Africa and Yixing in the People s Republic of China The data collected at these field sites is embedded within the context of broader theoretical discussions on Buddhism modernity globalization and the nation state By examining how one particular modern Buddhist religiosity that developed in a specific place moves into a global context the book provides a fresh view of what constitutes both modern and contemporary Buddhism while also exploring the social cultural and religious fabrics that underlie the spatial configurations of globalization T. S. Eliot and Christian Tradition Benjamin G. Lockerd, 2014-06-18 T S Eliot was raised in the Unitarian faith of his family in St Louis but drifted away from their beliefs while studying philosophy mysticism and anthropology at Harvard During a year in Paris he became involved with a group of Catholic writers and subsequently went through a gradual conversion to Catholic Christianity Many studies of Eliot s writings have mentioned his religious beliefs but most have failed to give the topic due weight and many have misunderstood or misrepresented his faith More recently scholars have begun exploring this dimension of Eliot s thought more carefully and fully In this book readers will find Eliot s Anglo Catholicism accurately defined and thoughtfully considered Essays illuminate the all important influence of the French Catholic writers he came to know in Paris Prominent among them were those who wrote for or were otherwise associated with the Nouvelle Revue Fran aise including Andr Gide Paul Claudel and Charles Louis Philippe Also active in Paris at that time was the notorious Charles Maurras whose influence on Eliot has been exaggerated by those who wished to discredit Eliot s traditionalist views A more measured assessment of Maurras s influence has been needed and is found in several essays here A wiser French Catholic writer Jacques Maritain has been largely ignored by Eliot scholars but his influence is now given due consideration The keynote of Eliot s cultural and political writings is his belief that religion and culture are integrally related Several contributors examine his ideas on this subject placing them in the context of Maritain s ideas as well as those of the Catholic historian Christopher Dawson Contributors take account of Eliot s intellectual relationship with such figures as John Henry Newman Charles Williams and the expert on church architecture W R Lethaby Eliot s engagement with other contemporaries who held a variety of Christian beliefs including George Santayana Paul Elmer More C S Lewis and David Jones is also explored This collection presents the subject of Eliot s religious beliefs in rich detail from a number of different perspectives giving readers the opportunity to see the topic in its complexity and fullness Sydney's One Special Evangelist Baden P. Stace, 2022-08-04 This landmark work is the first academic study of a figure who played a defining role in the Australian evangelical movement of the late twentieth century the inimitable preacher evangelist and churchman John C Chapman The study situates Chapman s career within the secularizing Western cultures of the post 1960s a period bringing momentous changes to the social and religious fabric of Western society At the same time global Evangelicalism was reviving bringing vitality to large swathes in the Global South and a re balancing in Western societies as conservative religious movements experienced growth and even renewal amidst wider secularizing trends Against this backdrop the study explores the way in which across a wide array of domestic and international fora Chapman contended for the soteriological priority of the gospel in Christian life mission and thought Accomplished via an absorbing blend of personal wit impassioned oratory innovative missiological strategy and striking theological perception the result was a stimulating history of public advocacy that sought a revival of confidence in Evangelicalism s message and a constantly reforming vision of Evangelicalism s method Such a legacy marks Chapman as a central figure within the generation of postwar leaders whose work has given Australian Evangelicalism its contemporary shape and dynamism
