'Ndrangheta of Calabria: Exploring a Pragmatic Approach to Confronting Organized Crime Vincent C. Figliomeni PhD,2019-06-30 The persistence of Ndrangheta activities around the world show that deterrence efforts alone directed against organized crime fall short in significantly reducing or preventing Ndrangheta organized crime Additional approaches derived from the Rational Choice Perspective RCP are discussed which include Routine Activities RA and Situational Crime Prevention SCP These practical approaches are applied to Ndrangheta for the purpose of identifying required changes in the environment i e political economic social technological legal that are inclusive of environmental PESTLE in a framework using Dynamic Operational Design Planning and Assessment Approach DODPAA This approach offers a process for designing actions and measuring results for confronting Ndrangheta organized crime An example framework model using cocaine transiting through the port of Gioia Tauro is created as an illustration to assist in developing a law enforcement judicial and legislative plans of action in order to measure evaluate and have results integrated into more detailed comprehensive plans of action for reducing and eventually preventing overall Ndrangheta organized crime This book presents a unique practical method process and model for security practitioners criminologists and policy makers to consider for designing plans of action to confront challenge and assess future counter Ndrangheta efforts Sex and Leisure Diana C. Parry, Corey W. Johnson, 2020-12-17 This book uses the emerging and cutting edge area of leisure research to highlight the importance of sexuality and sexual activity and its relevance to leisure studies It brings to the fore some complex issues associated with this topic using a range of substantive epistemological theoretical and methodological approaches Drawing on international scholarship the book examines sexuality from multiple and at times competing directions exploring the continuum of sex from work through to carnal pleasure and across specific sexual practices including BDSM pornography stripping and sex work Drawing on critical feminist queer and post theoretical perspectives the book charts a new direction for leisure studies and sex research including diverse understandings of leisure practice sex positivity fringe and deviant sex practices Critically the book moves beyond merely establishing sex as a leisure pursuit to focusing on the compelling and complex intersections between sexuality and leisure This is fascinating reading for any student or researcher with an interest in leisure sexuality gender cultural studies or sociology Post-Communist Malaise Zoran Samardzija, 2020-05-15 Post Communist Malaise examines political modernism within the context of post communist Eastern Europe and the Balkans It focuses on how select cinemas from the regions critique European unification and how they represent related issues like the transition from communism to free market capitalism the Euro crisis and austerity and the rise of nationalism and right wing politics A Sephardi Sea Dario Miccoli, 2022-07-26 A Sephardi Sea tells the story of Jews from the southern shore of the Mediterranean who between the late 1940s and the mid 1960s migrated from their country of birth for Europe Israel and beyond It is a story that explores their contrasting memories of and feelings for a Sephardi Jewish world in North Africa and Egypt that is lost forever but whose echoes many still hear Surely some of these Jewish migrants were already familiar with their new countries of residence because of colonial ties or of Zionism and often spoke the language Why then was the act of leaving so painful and why more than fifty years afterward is its memory still so tangible Dario Miccoli examines how the memories of a bygone Sephardi Mediterranean world became preserved in three national contexts Israel France and Italy where the Jews of the Middle East and North Africa and their descendants migrated and nowadays live A Sephardi Sea explores how practices of memory and heritage making from the writing of novels and memoirs to the opening of museums and memorials the activities of heritage associations and state led celebrations has filled an identity vacuum in the three countries and helps the Jews from North Africa and Egypt to define their Jewishness in Europe and Israel today but also reinforce their connection to a vanished world now remembered with nostalgia affection and sadness Genealogies and Conceptual Belonging Eike Marten, 2017-02-17 Taking recent German debates of diversity terminology as a case example for scrutinizing enactments of genealogy that assume a linear image of progressive generation this book engages with performative effects of genealogical stories in academic texts that negotiate conceptual belonging While supporters of the developing Diversity Studies in Germany cherish diversity's potential for multi-category investigations Gender and Women's Studies critics reject the term for its neoliberal managerial rationale allegedly holding profit above social justice Genealogies and Conceptual Belonging intervenes in this oppositional debate by turning one's attention to narrations of the origins of gender and diversity that suggest their proper place in the present Presenting a story about discontinuous genealogies and highlighting complicated interferences between gender and diversity Marten forges novel future connections between questions of gender sexual difference and diversity This pioneering volume will be of particular interest to undergraduates postgraduates and postdoctoral researchers interested in the fields of genealogy Gender Studies feminist theory feminist science studies and critical race diversity intersectionality studies

An Uncommon Reader Helen Smith, 2025-08-22 One of The Sunday Times UK Books of the Year Garnett's life will not need to be written again Andrew Morton Times Literary Supplement A penetrating biography of the most important English language editor of the early twentieth century During the course of a career spanning half a century Edward Garnett editor critic and reader for hire would become one of the most influential men in twentieth-century English literature Known for his incisive criticism and unwavering conviction in matters of taste Garnett was responsible for identifying and nurturing the talents of a generation of the greatest writers in the English language from Joseph Conrad to John Galsworthy Henry Green to Edward Thomas T.E. Lawrence to D.H. Lawrence In An Uncommon Reader Helen Smith brings to life Garnett's intimate and at times stormy relationships with those writers I have always suffered a little from a sense of injustice at your hands Galsworthy complained in a letter All turned to Garnett for advice and guidance at critical moments in their careers and their letters and diaries in which Garnett often features as a feared but deeply admired protagonist tell us not only about their creative processes but also about their hopes and fears Beyond his connections to some of the greatest minds in literary history we also come to know Edward as the husband of Constance Garnett the prolific translator responsible for introducing Tolstoy Dostoevsky and Chekhov to an English language readership and as the father of David Bunny Garnett who would make a name for himself as a writer and publisher Mr Edward Garnett occupies a unique position in the literary history of our age E.M. Forster wrote He has done more than any living writer to discover and encourage the genius of other writers and he has done it without any desire for personal prestige An absorbing and masterfully researched portrait of a man who was a defining influence on the modern literary landscape An Uncommon Reader asks us to consider the multifaceted meaning of literary genius Selected Letters of Vernon Lee, 1856-1935
