Redefining Capitalism in Global Economic Development Kui-Wai Li, 2017-06-07 Redefining Capitalism in Global Economic Development reconsiders capitalism by taking into account the unfolding forces of economic globalization especially in Asian economies It explores the economic implications and consequences of recent financial crises terrorism ultra low interest rates that are decades long debt prone countries and countries with large trade surpluses The book illuminates these economic implications and consequences through a framework of capitalist ideologies and concepts recognizing that Asia is redefining capitalism today The author Li seeks not to describe why nations fail but how the sustainability of capitalism can save the world Merges capitalist theory with global events as few books do Emphasizes ways to interpret capitalist ideas in light of current global affairs Reframes capitalism via economics supported by insights from political science sociology international relations and peace studies

Ecotourism in Sub-Saharan Africa Kenneth Backman, Ian E. Munanura, 2017-07-14 Since its first mention in the academic literature ecotourism has been endorsed by NGOs and governments as the most environmentally sound and locally beneficial method of tourist development Over the last thirty years sub Saharan Africa has adopted ecotourism as the primary focus for tourism development research into this has demonstrated mixed results In this publication we seek to explore the actual outcomes for African countries that have developed their tourism policy around the principals and values of ecotourism The sheer scope and magnitude of the task means that a complete evaluation of ecotourism in Africa is impossible Instead included here are spot assessments of various aspects of ecotourism related to conservation policy development environment governance community and indigenous peoples in southern Africa The studies cover a wide array of countries including Botswana Kenya Tanzania Uganda Ghana Zimbabwe and South Africa Though this is only the beginning of a needed long term evaluation of the positives and negatives of ecotourism it provides a starting point from which to move forward This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Ecotourism

Controversies in Medium of Instruction Reform Shek Kam Tse,Wing Wah Ki,Mark Shiu Kee Shum,2021-10-25 The book is an in depth and comprehensive analysis of the case of language in education reform and language policy controversies of Hong Kong over the initial two decades after 1997 It is a scholarly monograph of conscientious educators and researchers who have been active during the education reform collaborating with different parties on school development and classroom teaching experiments This book provides a multiple perspective investigation into the education and language matters Besides socio political perspectives this book also emphasizes the frontline educational and practical perspectives The book explores the benefits and effective methods of mother tongue and multi lingual teaching that have emerged in the period Based on the problematic experience of language purism and bifurcation in the reform the book argues for an inclusive multilingual education policy with mother tongue as the core This book provides potential solutions and good practices to tackle the complex issues brought about by medium of instruction policy reforms in post colonial times A Critical Legal Examination of Liberalism and Liberal Rights Matthew McManus,2020-11-23 This book has two aims First to provide a critical legal examination of the liberal state and liberal rights in the law and secondly to present a systematic alternative to liberal approaches to both the law and rights grounded in a left wing conception of human dignity At the opening of the 21st century a remarkable thing happened Liberalism once considered the only doctrine left standing at the end of history began to face renewed competition from both the political left and the post modern conservative right This book argues that the way forward is not to abandon but to radicalize the potential of the liberal project Analysing major theoretical positions in order to build a critical genealogy of liberal rights McManus lucidly develops a left wing alternative to the classic liberal approach to rights drawing on the traditions of liberal egalitarians and deliberative democracy theory Societies he argues should be committed to advancing the human dignity of all through the enshrinement of certain rights into positive state law the expansion of democracy and a resolute commitment to economic equality Islam in Russia Diana Galeeva,2024-09-09 Islam in Russia is a rare scholarly attempt to understand the tolerant nature of Islam in the modern Russian Federation since the state s official acceptance of Islam The book explores the key factors that have contributed over time to the establishment of a co existent form of Islam in modern multi ethnic and multinational Russia It also probes discussion of the role that Russian Muslim intellectuals have played in forming contemporary Russian Islam It concludes that the co existent form of Islam in Russia can be linked to three key factors its historical emergence the intellectual culture and strong regional identities This original and engaging examination of the development and identity of Islam in Russia is a useful resource for students and scholars of Global Islam Islam in Europe History of Russia Islamic History Islamic Thought and Modern

Religious History      Multilingual Hong Kong: Languages, Literacies and Identities David C.S. Li, 2017-01-12 This volume gives an up to date account of the language situation and social context in multilingual Hong Kong After an in depth interpretive analysis of various language contact phenomena it shows why it is such a tall order for Hongkongers to live up to the Special Administrative Region government s language policy goalpost biliteracy and trilingualism A detailed contrastive analysis between Cantonese and a English b Modern Written Chinese and c Putonghua helps explain the nature of the linguistic and acquisitional challenges involved Economic forces and sociopolitical realities helped shape the mother tongue education or dual MoI streaming policy since September 1998 The book provides a critical review of the significant milestones and key policy documents from the early 1990s and outlines the concerns of stakeholders at the receiving end Another MoI debate concerns the feasibility and desirability of teaching Chinese in Putonghua TCP Based on a critical review of the TCP literature and recent psycholinguistic and neuroscience research the language in education policy implications are discussed followed by a few recommendations Hongkongers of South Asian descent saw their life chances curtailed as a result of the post 1997 changes in the language requirements for gaining access to civil service positions and higher education Based on a study of 15 South Asian undergraduate students prior language learning experiences recommendations are made to help redress that social inequity problem      Teaching Language and Content in Multicultural and Multilingual Classrooms María Luisa Carrió-Pastor, Begoña Bellés Fortuño, 2020-12-18 This edited book explores critical issues relating to Content and Language Integrated Learning CLIL and English as a Medium of Instruction EMI setting out their similarities and differences to demystify the terms and their implications for classroom practice The authors show how CLIL and EMI practices are carried out in different institutional contexts and demonstrate how both approaches can benefit language and content acquisition This book is addressed to second foreign language teaching staff involved in teaching in English at primary education secondary education and higher education levels      Stanley Cavell on Aesthetic Understanding Garry L. Hagberg, 2018-10-31 This book investigates the scope and significance of Stanley Cavell s lifelong and lasting contribution to aesthetic understanding Focusing on various strands of the rich body of Cavell s philosophical work the authors explore connections between his wide ranging writings on literature music film opera autobiography Wittgenstein and Austin to contemporary currents in aesthetic thinking Most centrally the writings brought together here from an international team of senior mid career and emerging scholars explore the illuminating power of Cavell s work for our deeper and richer comprehension of the intricate relations between aesthetic and ethical understanding The chapters show what aesthetic understanding consists of how such understanding might be articulated in the tradition of Cavell following Wittgenstein and J L Austin and why this mode of human understanding is particularly important At a time of quickening interest in Cavell and the tradition of which he is a central part and present day leading exponent this book offers insight into the deepest contributions of a major American philosopher and the profound role that aesthetic experience can play in the humane understanding of persons society and culture      Cellular Neuropathology Editor's Pick 2021 Dirk M. Hermann,2021-07-01      Organizational Research David M. Boje,2018-09-03 Organizational research methods ORM are making an ontological turn by studying the nature of Being becoming and the meaning of existence in the world For example without ontology there is no ground and no theory in Grounded Theory GT This book explores ten ways to develop fourth wave GT that is grounded and theory 1st wave GT commits inductive fallacy inference 2nd wave GT bandaids it with positivistic content coding 3rd wave GT turns to social constructivism but this leaves out the materiality and ecology of existence The first three waves do not address falsification or verification There is another theme Qualitative research methods is a discipline craft not mere science or something that automated text analysis software can displace Quantitative narrative analysis QDA is one more way to colonize and marginalize indigenous ways of knowing IWOK Without an ontological turn its the death of storytelling predicted by Walter Benjamin and Gertrude Stein predicted The good news is Western Empirical Science is beginning to listen to IWOK Native Science experiential living story method of relations not only to other humans but to other animals plants to living air water and earth in living ecosystem of an enchanted world There is a gap in the qualitative research methodology practices and comprehensive advanced approaches causing a split between practice and theory So called Grounded Theory inductive positivism Organizational Research Storytelling in Action is about how to conduct ten kinds of ontological Research Methods and conduct their interpretative analyses for organization studies in an ethically answerable way It is aimed at people who want a more advanced treatment than available in so called Grounded Theory or automated narrative analysis books      Policies, Politics, and Ideologies of English-Medium Instruction in Asian Universities Pramod K. Sah,Fan Fang,2023-06-29 Against the backdrop of uncritical promotions of English medium instruction EMI in higher education globally this edited volume maps out the political ideological and policy related issues of EMI programs in multilingual and multicultural universities in Asia In this volume EMI researchers and practitioners involved in different Asian countries and regions have collaboratively unpacked the critical dimensions of EMI programs in higher education with a goal to provide must needed resources for researchers graduate students higher education leaders and policymakers This volume is the first of its kind in that it provides an exclusive and critical tapestry of EMI at multilingual universities from all parts of Asia including Central Asia Kazakhstan East Asia Mainland China Korea Japan and Taiwan South Asia Bangladesh and Nepal Southeast Asia Brunei Malaysia Philippines Thailand and Vietnam and Western Asia United Arab Emirates The key takeaway for the reader is to not only understand the current phenomenon of EMI in Asian universities but to also learn the dark side of its policies programs and practices that have led to unequal teaching and learning spaces in diverse societies This collection will be of interest to scholars and policymakers in English medium instruction English language teaching TESOL and applied linguistics      Exploring Gender and Sikh Traditions Doris R. Jakobsh,2021-09-01 This volume gathers scholars who focus on gender through a variety of disciplines and approaches to

Sikh Studies The intersections of religion and gender are here explored based on an understanding that both are socially constructed Far from being static as so often presented in world religions textbooks religious traditions are constantly in flux responding to historical cultural and social contexts So too is the Sikh tradition in terms of practices ideologies rituals and notions of identity We here conclude that a Sikh tradition does not exist instead there are numerous forms thereof In this volume Sikhism is presented as a collection of Sikh traditions Gender studies in line with women s liberation masculine and feminist studies have long examined and have long deconstructed the patriarchy but also move to identify other subordinate dominant relations between individuals Indeed there are numerous forms of discrimination and power structures that simultaneously create a multiplicity of oppression Intersectionality has become the basis of an increasingly systematized production of contemporary discourses on feminism and gender analysis as is evidenced by the varied contributions in this volume
