Mon corps et moi Jacqueline Courrée, 1990 Alcibiades at the Door Lawrence R. Schehr, 1995 Focusing on works by Rene Crevel Jean Paul Sartre Roland Barthes and Herve Guibert this book studies how the figures of homosexuality function at the limits of narrative as part of the deep structure of narrative and at the border between public and private discourse The first three chapters follow the difference between inside and outside between public and private between what is known and what can only be surmised The homosexual Rene Crevel who is both inside Surrealism and outside it forces us to reread the marginalized figure of homosexuality in Surrealism Crevel is discussed in light of his most important work Mon corps et moi a sustained effort to negotiate the problems of public and private personae Long before concentrating on Jean Genet Jean Paul Sartre often turned to the subject of homosexuality in his writings of the 1930s and 1940s The figures and forms of homosexuality in Sartre's work are shown to relate to a phenomenology of perception to a persistence of the relation between vision and knowledge and to a set of narrative ploys that put Sartre's own relation to homosexuality in a new light The last of these three chapters focuses on Roland Barthes with a retrospective glance at Andre Gide through an examination of their travel and confessional writings Discourses of homosexuality are related to discourse about social power dominant structures and a model of colonialism The final chapter examines the AIDS related works of Herve Guibert which are both a meditation on and an exploration of AIDS that most public of private phenomena It also examines the changing relation between public and private between the outside world and Guibert's inner world and between the singularity of literary writing and the nomothetic nature of the public document all of which change in a world and in an individual affected by AIDS

Modernism Mat Fournier,2024-11-26 During the interwar years in France modernist literature challenged norms around sex and sexuality through daring portrayals of homosexuality and queerness The same moment however witnessed the crystallization of the Western gender binary and its stark lines of division between male and female Bringing together trans theory with French literary studies Mat Fournier offers a new understanding of how the gender binary emerged in the modernist era Dysphoric Modernism considers gender deviance in works by a broad range of French authors both writers who are canonical for queer theory such as Marcel Proust Andr Gide Jean Genet and Colette and lesser known figures including Ren Crevel Raymond Radiguet Maurice Sachs and Maurice Rostand Its trans readings track the dysphoria inherent to modern gender and the many ways these texts both disrupt and reinforce it Examining the complex entanglements of gender and sexuality with the colonial project Fournier argues that modernist writers representations of sexual dissidence came at the cost of their enforcement of racial and gendered discrimination A groundbreaking transgender analysis of French modernist literature this book also demonstrates the significance of the concept of dysphoria for a number of fields

INTRODUCTION Lorsque les philosophes du XVII^e et du XVIII^e siècle ont commencé par Hobbes et Descartes découvrir dans les mathématiques le modèle de toute connaissance certaine et tendent à délimiter a priori les pouvoirs de l'esprit ils posent ces limites en définissant en même temps ce que sont des connaissances imaginaires Ce sera pour Hobbes ce royaume des Fées auquel dans le Leviathan il compare l'Eglise pour Descartes le royaume de l'enfance et du préjugé Il s'agit du lieu d'une imagination déréglée malsaine où règnent les pièges d'un langage vain par lequel des esprits qui se prétendent savants séduisent égarent en croyant et en faisant croire qu'un objet réel ou possible correspond aux mots dont ils se servent On n'est pas délivré de ce qu'on nie Le monde de Descartes sera un monde feint l'imagination va constituer le centre de la pensée de Hume et se confondre chez lui avec la raison Les monades seront de l'aveu de Leibniz des fictions commodes et Kant fera de la force d'imagination la charnière entre l'intuition et le concept
