Exhibiting Slavery Vivian Nun Halloran, 2009-10-23 Exhibiting Slavery examines the ways in which Caribbean postmodern historical novels about slavery written in Spanish English and French function as virtual museums simultaneously showcasing and curating a collection of primary documents within their pages As Vivian Nun Halloran attests these novels highlight narrative objects extraneous to their plot such as excerpts from the work of earlier writers allusions to specific works of art the uniforms of maroon armies assembled in preparation of a military offensive and accounts of slavery s negative impact on the traditional family unit in Africa or the United States In doing so they demand that their readers go beyond the pages of the books to sort out fact from fiction and consider what relationship these featured objects have to slavery and to contemporary life The self referential function of these texts produces a museum effect that simultaneously teaches and entertains their readers prompting them to continue their own research beyond and outside the text Bringing the World Into Your Classroom Mary Renaud,1968 Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature ,1922 Connect ,2004 Real Estate Record and Builders' Guide ,1889 Teaching the Shoah Zev Garber,Kenneth L. Hanson,2022-11-16 Today more than 80 years after the Holocaust Shoah the events surrounding Hitler s campaign of murder have not receded into the distance but remain memorialized in multiple venues both scholarly and popular This volume is an anthological collection of essays and creative pieces showcasing the pedagogical issues related to the Nazi genocide It addresses the field of Shoah education featuring new and novel ways to promote awareness of the reality of the genocide as well as an understanding of the instrumentalities both philosophical and physical which drove and concretized it In addition to serious academic contributions this volume features a play a short story and a discussion of the use of educational video in an online environment It provides insight into the overarching question how can and should the Shoah be taught and what approaches can be utilized in sharing the most important lessons of this most unspeakable example of ethnic cleansing in human history A Parisienne in Chicago Madame Léon Grandin,2010 This fascinating account of a French woman s impressions of America in the late nineteenth century reveals an unusual cross cultural journey through fin de si cle Paris Chicago and New York Madame Leon Grandin s travels and extended stay in Chicago in 1893 were the result of her husband s collaboration on the fountain sculpture for the World s Columbian Exposition Initially impressed with the city s fast pace and architectural grandeur Grandin s attentions were soon drawn to its social and cultural customs reflected as observations in her writing During a ten month interval as a resident she was intrigued by the interactions between men and women mothers and their children teachers and students and other human relationships especially noting the comparative social freedoms of American women After this interval of acclimatization the young Parisian socialite had begun to view her own culture and its less liberated mores with considerable doubt I had tasted the fruit of independence of intelligent activity and was revolted at the idea of assuming once again the passive and inferior role that awaited me she wrote Grandin s curiosity and interior access to Chicago s social and domestic spaces produced an unusual travel narrative that goes beyond the usual tourist reactions and provides a valuable resource for readers interested in late nineteenth century America Chicago and social commentary Significantly her feminine views on American life are in marked contrast to parallel reflections on the culture by male visitors from abroad It is precisely the dual narrative of this text the simultaneous recounting of a foreigner s impressions and the consequent questioning of her own cultural certainties that make her book unique This translation includes an introductory essay by Arnold Lewis that situates Grandin s account in the larger context of European visitors to Chicago in the 1890s Critical Issues in Early Second Language Learning Myriam Met,1998 National Institutes of Health Annual Report of International Activities John E.
