French politicians and admirals but effectively leveraged in their pursuit of an independent naval policy within a strategy of alliance Hugues Canuel demonstrates that the renaissance of French sea power was shaped by a naval policy formulated within a strategy of alliance closely adapted to the needs of a continental state with worldwide interests This work fills a distinct void in the literature concerned with the evolution of naval affairs from World War II to the 1960s The author drawing upon extensive research through French British American and NATO archives including those made public only recently regarding the sensitive circumstances surrounding the French nuclear deterrent maps out for readers the unique path adopted in France to rebuild a blue water fleet during unprecedented circumstances
