American Murder Gini Graham Scott JD, Ph.D, 2007-10-30

America has long had the reputation as the most violent and murderous of modern industrialized nations Even while violent crime has dropped in recent years our murder rate is still incredibly high Since the beginning of the 20th century our society has undergone profound changes Our technologies have advanced but the motives and methods for murder and escaping the long arm of the law have kept pace often capitalizing on available technologies In addition as the century progressed the media became an integral part of murder in America helping investigations glamorizing murder and bringing it into our homes on a daily basis Here Scott examines the changing face of murder in the context of societal changes and traces the advances in investigative techniques and technologies Each chapter offers vivid accounts of the most notorious and representative murders for each time period focusing especially on those murderers who have had the edge on their pursuers even escaping detection to this day Beginning at the turn of the century Scott details one of the most notorious cases of the day in which a jealous woman poisoned the wife of her lover The book ends with the still unsolved Tupac Shakur murder case Taking readers through the various developments in methods of murder and the techniques used to capture the criminals Scott provides a fascinating overview of the way murder has changed through the decades and how law enforcement has kept pace This insightful book sheds light on both our fascination with murder and on murderers and their nemeses over the last one hundred years Challenging US Human Rights Violations Since 9/11 Ginger Ann Fagan, 2011-04-29 Activists lawyers students teachers union members government officials and judges will welcome this thoroughly researched comprehensive examination of human rights violations in the wake of 9 11 Meiklejohn Civil Liberties Institute Executive Director Ann Fagan Ginger has created an accessible well organized reference work divided into six parts Part I The Mobilization of Shame describes executive orders and new laws violating basic rights and citizen reactions to add up the real score in the War on Terrorism Part II Where the People and their Lawyers Can Go to Redress Grievances spells out the complaint process through the little known Office of Inspector General and in U S federal and state courts Part III What the Government Is Committed and Required To Do in the United Nations and the Organization of American States describes the reporting process and how it has brought about improvements in many countries such as new treatments for AIDS Part IV Report on Human Rights Violations forms the bulk of the book It describes all the relevant facts in 184 reports on 30 types of violations Activists will find all the facts they need and lawyers can reference the specific laws being violated by government officials military personnel agents and contractors Part V Text of Petitions Resolutions Ordinances spells out what has been proposed and adopted since 9 11 to stop violations Part VI Text of Laws Violated and Ignored provides the language of the U S Constitution Bill Of Rights Articles in the UN Charter the Convention Against Torture the Geneva Conventions and other human rights and international law treaties the U S has ratified or signed This is an indispensable tool for citizens and lawyers defending civil liberties in the era of the Patriot Act and the War on Terrorism Register of Reporting Labor Organizations United States.
