Ramakrishna, 2016-05-13 e Revisioniste or e alternativee historians have increasingly questioned elements of the Singapore Story the master narrative of the nation s political and socioeconomic development since its founding by the British in 1819 Much criticism focuses especially on one defining episode of the Story the internal security dragnet mounted on 2 February 1963 against Communist United Front elements on the island known to posterity as Operation Coldstore The revisionists claim that Coldstore was mounted for political rather than security reasons and actually destroyed a legitimate Progressive Left opposition personalized by the charismatic figure of Lim Chin Siong rather than a dangerous Communist network as the conventional wisdom holds Relying on both declassified and some previously unseen classified sources this book challenges revisionist claims reiterating the historic importance of Coldstore in helping pave the way for Singapore s remarkable journey from Third World status to First in a single generation Children and Forced Migration Marisa O.

Ensor, Elżbieta M. Goździak, 2017-02-23 This book responds to the reality that children and youth constitute a disproportionately large percentage of displaced populations worldwide It demonstrates how their hopes and aspirations reflect the transient nature of their age group and often differ from those of their elders It also examines how they face additional difficulties due to the inconsistent definition and uneven implementation of the traditional durable solutions to forced migration implemented by national governments and international assistance agencies The authors use empirical research findings and robust policy analyses of cases of child displacement across the globe to make their central argument that the particular challenges and opportunities that displaced children and youth face must be investigated and factored into relevant policy and practice promoting more sustainable and durable solutions in the process This interdisciplinary edited collection will appeal to students and scholars of forced migration studies development conflict and peace building and youth studies along with policy makers children s rights organizations and NGOs More Human Steve Hilton, Scott

Football, Culture and Power David J. Leonard, Kimberly B. George, Wade Davis, 2016-10-14 What does it mean when a hit that knocks an American football player unconscious is cheered by spectators What are the consequences of such violence for the participants of this sport and for the entertainment culture in which it exists This book brings together scholars and sport commentators to examine the relationship between American football violence and the larger relations of power within contemporary society From high school and college to the NFL Football Culture and Power analyses the social political and cultural imprint of America's national pastime The NFL's participation in and production of hegemonic masculinity alongside its practices of racism sexism heterosexism and ableism provokes us to think deeply about the historical and contemporary systems of violence we are invested in and entertained by This social scientific analysis of American football considers both the positive and negative power of the game generating discussion and calling for accountability It is fascinating reading for all students and scholars of sports studies with an interest in American football and the wider social impact of sport Chapter 14 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Pulp and Paper Magazine of Canada, 1918 The London Corn Circular, 1919 Paper Diver Gary L. Pinkerton, 2024-07-11 Harry E. Rieseberg's autobiographical writings include stories like being attacked by a giant octopus while recovering sunken treasure defending himself from an attack by a 15 foot shark with only a diving knife and surviving a hurricane and a severely broken leg while at sea all captivating tales for audiences in the 1940s and 1950s and all invented by a very successful charlatan This is a biography of Harry E. Rieseberg a shameless self promoter who passed himself off as the world's greatest treasure salvor but who never got wet His entire public persona was based on stories he retold in dozens of books and thousands of articles in which he made claims of feats that were fantasy but sold as fact Despite the often obvious facts of his fabrication his books influenced a generation of legitimate divers and underwater archaeologists like Sir Robert Marx and Robert Stenuit Thoroughly researched this book uses sources including his personal records and letters to his agents to provide deep insight into the nature of his life and the way he created a false persona for popular consumption The Effects of the Eurozone Sovereign Debt Crisis Christian Schweiger, Jose Magone, 2017-10-02 The book analyses the emerging centre periphery divisions within the European Union which result from the unprecedented conditions created by the 2008/09 global financial crisis and the subsequent Eurozone sovereign debt crisis The multiple layers of policy coordination which emerged in response to the crisis have initiated a process by which the EU is increasingly divided in terms of the level of vertical integration between the Eurozone core group and differentiated peripheries amongst the outsiders At the same time the sovereign debt crisis has created a periphery of predominantly Southern European countries within the Eurozone that became dependent on external financial support from the other member states The contributions in this book critically examine various aspects of the emerging internal post crisis constellation of the EU The main focus lies on national and supranational governance issues national dynamics and dynamics in the Eurozone core as well as in the periphery This book was originally published as a special issue of Perspectives on European Politics and Society Trapped by History Darryl Cronin, 2021-04-15 The Australian nation has reached an impasse in Indigenous policy and practice and fresh strategies and perspectives are required Trapped by History highlights a fundamental issue that the Australian nation must confront to develop a genuine relationship with Indigenous Australians The existing relationship between Indigenous people and the

Australian state was constructed on the myth of an empty land terra nullius Interactions with Indigenous people have been constrained by eighteenth century assumptions and beliefs that Indigenous people did not have organised societies had neither land ownership nor a recognisable form of sovereignty and that they were savage but could be civilized through the erasure of their culture These incorrect assumptions and beliefs are the foundation of the legal constitutional and political treatment of Indigenous Australians over the course of the country s history They remain ingrained in governmental institutions Indigenous policy making judicial decision making and contemporary public attitudes about Indigenous people Trapped by History shines new light upon historical and contemporary examples where Indigenous people have attempted to engage and dialogue with state and federal governments These governments have responded by trying to suppress and discredit Indigenous rights culture and identities and impose assimilationist policies In doing so they have rejected or ignored Indigenous attempts at dialogue and partnership Other settler countries such as New Zealand Canada and the United States of America have all negotiated treaties with Indigenous people and have developed constitutional ways of engaging cross culturally In Australia the limited recognition that Indigenous people have achieved to date shows that the state is unable to resolve long standing issues with Indigenous people Movement beyond the current colonial relationship with Indigenous Australians requires a genuine dialogue to not only examine the legal and intellectual framework that constrains Indigenous recognition but to create new foundations for a renewed relationship based on intercultural negotiation mutual respect sharing and mutual responsibility This must involve building a shared understanding around addressing past injustices and creating a shared vision for how Indigenous people and other Australians will associate politically in the future
