Discipleship that Fits Bobby Harrington,Alex Absalom,2016-02-09 For far too long the church has tried to make disciples using a one size fits all approach Some churches advocate 1 on 1 discipling others try getting everyone into a small group while still others training through mission trips or service projects Yet others focus all their efforts on attracting people to a large group gathering to hear biblical teaching and preaching But does one size really fit everyone Based on careful biblical study and years of experience making disciples in the local church Bobby Harrington and Alex Absalom have identified five key relationships where discipleship happens in our lives In each relational context we need to understand how discipleship occurs and we need to set appropriate expectations for each context Discipleship That Fits shows you the five key ways discipleship occurs It looks at how Jesus made disciples and how disciples were formed in the early church Each of the contexts is necessary at different times and in different ways as a person grows toward maturity in Christ Public Relationships The church gathering corporately for worship Social Relationships Networks of smaller relationships where we engage in mission and live out our faith in community Personal Relationships Small groups of six to sixteen people where we challenge and encourage one another on a regular basis Transparent Relationships Close relationships of three to four where we share intimate details of our lives for accountability The Divine Relationship Our relationship with Jesus Christ where we grow through the empowering presence of the Holy Spirit Filled with examples and stories Alex and Bobby show you how to develop discipleship practices in each relational context by sharing how Jesus did it how the early church practiced it and how churches are discipling people today

Building a Ministry of Spiritual Mentoring Jim Grassi,2014-04-01

There is nothing more fundamental to the Christian faith and to building godly men than discipleship. In today's vernacular, discipleship would best be described as Spiritual Mentoring. Why are discipleship and mentoring so important? How does discipleship connect to men and the struggles they face today? Authentic discipleship is about developing a caring concern and a genuine love for others through modeling Christ-like attitudes and behavior in the context of relational environments. A fresh approach is needed to define, implement, and equip men with a passion to make disciples. It starts with relationship. Men are desperate for meaningful relationships both with God and other men. Building a Ministry of Spiritual Mentoring will help churches and ministry leaders create dynamic environments for men to experience real transformation and develop authentic Christian relationships. This proven method will assist your church or group in effectively developing and deploying a ministry of spiritual mentoring. Features include: Metaphors, anecdotes, and practical applications. Proven tools for developing a ministry around spiritual mentoring. Discussion questions.

Measuring Spiritual Maturity Randy Tompkins, 2019-10-21

Jesus commissioned His apostles, and by extension the church, to make disciples. Many church leaders have come to the conclusion that attending worship services and Bible study classes will result in making disciples. A review of statistical reports indicates a majority of church members and attenders do not believe this process will work or they have come to the conclusion they do not want to become disciples. The 2010 US Religion Census report indicated 79% of the 150,686,156 members, children, and other attenders did not attend worship services. It also reported over 60% of the same group did not attend Bible study classes. In 2014, one of the major denominations in the United States reported 63% of church members did not attend worship services and 62% did not attend Bible study classes. There are literally thousands of spiritual surveys available to church leaders. A majority of these surveys develop conclusions based on a single survey being administered or two surveys being administered several months apart. If a disciple-making process is to be effective, there needs to be a method of measuring the progress of individuals moving toward spiritual maturity. This type of measurement would produce a visual of spiritual growth, spiritual decline, or spiritual non-growth. The only way to measure the spiritual progress of an individual is to create a measurement of the various elements of the spiritual life. The process of measuring spiritual maturity in this book is self-contained within the participating church, and the responses of the participating individuals are highly confidential and warehoused by the participating church.

Am I really a sinner? Mark Schonebaum, 2024-08-14

Are you really a sinner? When asked this question, most people will say that they are a good person without stopping to think that even good people can be sinners. In fact, we are all sinners, but the problem is that many of us simply don't know what sin is, which is what the author explores in this book. Get answers to questions such as: How can we define what sin truly is? How does sin hurt us and our relationships? How can we eliminate sin? What must we do to find salvation from sin? The author emphasizes that to follow Jesus, you must follow everything, not just what you like. The whole purpose of following Jesus is to align with God, not for God to align with you. God not only tells us that we are sinners, but He sent Jesus to cleanse us of all sin. We are no
