Neoliberal Apartheid Andy Clarno, 2017-03-07 In recent years as peace between Israelis and Palestinians has remained cruelly elusive scholars and activists have increasingly turned to South African history and politics to make sense of the situation In the early 1990s both South Africa and Israel began negotiating with their colonized populations South Africans saw results the state was democratized and black South Africans gained formal legal equality Palestinians on the other hand won neither freedom nor equality and today Israel remains a settler colonial state Despite these different outcomes the transitions of the last twenty years have produced surprisingly similar socioeconomic changes in both regions growing inequality racialized poverty and advanced strategies for securing the powerful and policing the racialized poor Neoliberal Apartheid explores this paradox through an analysis of de colonization and neoliberal racial capitalism After a decade of research in the Johannesburg and Jerusalem regions Andy Clarno presents here a detailed ethnographic study of the precariousness of the poor in Alexandra township the dynamics of colonization and enclosure in Bethlehem the growth of fortress suburbs and private security in Johannesburg and the regime of security coordination between the Israeli military and the Palestinian Authority in the West Bank The first comparative study of the changes in these two areas since the early 1990s the book addresses the limitations of liberation in South Africa highlights the impact of neoliberal restructuring in Palestine and argues that a new form of neoliberal apartheid has emerged in both contexts
