David A. McDonald

Gauteng Province Novembr Paper 1 Geography:

The Geography of South Africa Jasper Knight, Christian M. Rogerson, 2018-10-03 This edited collection examines contemporary directions in geographical research on South Africa It encompasses a cross section of selected themes of critical importance not only to the discipline of Geography in South Africa but also of relevance to other areas of the Global South All chapters are original contributions providing a state of the art research baseline on key themes in physical human and environmental geography and in understanding the changing geographical landscapes of modern South Africa These contributions set the scene for an understanding of the relationships between modern South Africa and the wider contemporary world including issues of sustainable development and growth in the Global South Making Public in a Privatized World David A. McDonald, 2016-02-15 How do we provide effective public services in a deeply neoliberal world In the wake of the widespread failure of privatisation efforts societies in the global south are increasingly seeking progressive ways of recreating the public sector With contributors ranging from cutting edge scholars to activists working in health water and energy provision and with case studies covering a broad spectrum of localities and actors Making Public in a Privatized World uncovers the radically different ways in which public services are being reshaped from the grassroots up From communities holding the state accountable for public health in rural Guatemala to waste pickers in India and decentralized solar electricity initiatives in Africa the essays in this collection offer probing insights into the complex ways in which people are building genuine alternatives to privatization while also illustrating the challenges which communities face in creating public services which are not subordinated to the logic of the market or to the monolithic state entities of the past Ambiguous Restructurings of Post-apartheid Cape Town Christoph Haferburg, Jürgen Ossenbrügge, 2003 What will tomorrow's Cape Town look like This volume reflects a variety of aspects of urban development and restructuring efforts in Cape Town in the last years A focus lies on the question if the apartheid city is reproducing itself This leads to an evaluation whether current policies really counter societal imbalances The essays presented here illuminate possible pathways towards the urban futures unfolding in a South African city in transition Interpellations, Questions and Replies of the National Assembly South Africa. Parliament (1994-). National Assembly, 1997 Higher Education, Community Engagement and Entrepreneurship in Southern Africa I. G. Govender, 2021-02-24 This volume explores the pressing issues of entrepreneurship education and development in Southern Africa It discusses the various roles of higher education institutions in enhancing entrepreneurship in localised communities and provides a systematic solution for improving the Southern African economy by realising the importance of empowering the youth with entrepreneurial skills In addition successful development requires effective policies and contemporary approaches to both community engagement and entrepreneurship management The book uses different Southern African case studies to discuss the various issues and innovations in entrepreneurship in the country Debates of the National Assembly (Hansard) South Africa. Parliament (1994-). National Assembly, 1997
