Corporate commitment to hiring veterans :Congressional Hearing , The Role of Multinational Companies in the Middle East Mamarinta P. Mababaya,2002 This study investigated whether known economic and international business theories available in the literature are meaningful enough to explain the nature existence and role of multinational companies MNCs in the Middle East particularly Saudi Arabia Two sets of questionnaires were distributed in major cities of Saudi Arabia one set for 100 multinational managers and another for 280 multinational customers 234 questionnaires were collected 45 from multinational managers and 189 from customers This represents a total response rate of 62 percent which is adequate for this study. The empirical results supported with comprehensive secondary data confirmed virtually all of the research hypotheses. The study found that joint ventures are the dominant form of multinational business in Saudi Arabia both in manufacturing and service industries. The core roles of MNCs in the Saudi foreign ventures are evident in the cross border value adding activities of marketing, trading, manufacturing, consulting, contracting, project management, insurance, hotel operation and banking. Likewise, MNCs provide licensing, franchising, financing services and various auxiliary roles in the Kingdom. Therefore, the multinationality of a firm or a group of firms operating across national boundaries is not necessarily synonymous with international production, the main subject of contemporary multinational theories. The respondents generally perceived the competitiveness of MNCs operating in Saudi Arabia as a function of a number of economic, management, marketing, technological and other variables. They also perceived the contributions of MNCs to the Kingdom's socio-economic developments as significant and positive. The study also found that understanding Islamic values and ethics is important for MNCs. In this regard, the researcher looked at some objective indicators of business success and related them to selected measures of MNCs' local cultural awareness and responsiveness. The results indicate that the business success of multinationals operating in Saudi Arabia is positively related to their local cultural awareness and responsiveness. Along this line, this study covers some vital elements of Islamic culture which will help MNCs understand further the cultural needs, values and sensitivities of the Saudi people and Muslims in general.

Customer Relationship Management Chaturvedi, 2006-03-30. About the Book: Customer Relationship Management (CRM) was born in the 1990s in the West. In the initial phases, the over-enthusiastic businesses invested almost US 400 billion. But the very same businesses were disheartened very soon, primarily because there were no visible results. And there were no quick results mainly because 80 per cent of the investments were made in technology. CRM meant technology to them; then CRM means technology to them even today. However, no business need bother so long as it is ready to go by the human aspect of CRM and take technology only as a facilitator. This book is an attempt to present this human side of CRM. The authors' belief is that in the long term CRM can be successful only due to its human face. The book is arranged in three parts. Part I: Customer Relationship Management contains the academic inputs titled as Customer is King, Customer Managed Relationships, Mini Marketing, Types of CRM, Building Blocks of CRM, CRM Strategies, Customer Relationship Management by Indian Firms, Customer Retention Strategies, HRM in CRM and Implementing a Technology based CRM Solution. Part II: Call Centre Management covers the areas concerning the working of a call centre, titled as The Call Centre, Call Centre Functionality, Team Building, Customer Relationship Management, Web based Customer Support and Contact Centre, Glossary. Part III: Cases gives a first hand idea of the working of CRM in the more peculiar contexts like public sector undertakings through five well documented cases. Contents: Part I: Customer Relationship Management: Customer is King, Customer Managed Relationships, Mini Marketing, Types of CRM, Building Blocks of CRM, CRM Strategy, Customer Relationship Management by Indian Firms, Customer Retention Strategies.
