Origination Andy Pike, 2015-06-02 Origination The Geographies of Brands and Branding offers innovative theoretical and conceptual frameworks relating to the ways that actors create meaning and value in commodity brands and branding through processes of geographical association Provides innovative conceptualization and theorization to facilitate an understanding of the geographical dimensions of brands and branding Challenges current interpretations of brands as vehicles of homogenization in globalization Establishes the theoretical and conceptual foundations of a more geographically sensitive approach through rigorous empirical examination of the under researched geographical differentiation of commodity brands and branding Presents innovative new research and analysis of the socio spatial biographies of the Newcastle Brown Ale Burberry and Apple brands Forges strong new connections between political and cultural economy approaches within geography Provides a distinctive and incisive conceptual and theoretical framework capable of engaging other branded commodities and their branding in other times and places CAA2014: 21st Century Archaeology F.

Giligny, F. Djindjian, L. Costa, 2015-03-31 This volume brings together a selection of papers proposed for the Proceedings of the 42nd Computer Applications and Quantitative Methods in Archaeology conference CAA hosted at Paris 1 Pantheon Sorbonne University from 22nd to 25th April 2014 Towards Good Order at Sea Thomas Mandrup, Francois

Vre~, 2015-03-01 The problems originating from the resultant bad order at sea can be directly felt on land when smuggling terrorism and related criminal activities operate more or less unhindered The book provides an important mapping of the challenges preventing good order at sea off the African coast and East Africa in particular Rear Admiral N Wang

Commandant Royal Danish Defence College Australia's Refugee Politics in the 21st Century Kim Huynh, 2023-06-23 Boat arrivals have defined and divided 21st century Australia This book examines the Stop the Boats era from between the 2013 and 2022 federal elections During this time the dominant political view has been that to accept a single boat family or person is to risk being overwhelmed by many others It follows that government must do whatever it takes to command Australia's borders and deter unauthorized arrivals that is Stop the Boats This book sets out the key political events and arguments for and against Australia's assurance that anyone who comes without permission will never be able to stay It examines the impact of this commitment on regional and international relations on those who seek refuge in Australia and on those who call it home This volume serves as a valuable political history and analysis for scholars policymakers students journalists and anyone who is interested in questions of contemporary exclusion and belonging Ageing in Cities OECD, 2015-04-30 This book examines trends in ageing societies and urban development before assessing the impact of ageing populations on urban areas and strategies for policy and governance It includes 9 case studies The Routledge Atlas of South Asian Affairs Robert W. Bradnock, 2015-10-14 South Asia has developed from a group of newly independent post Colonial states of at most secondary importance to the wider world to its current position as a region of central strategic importance to both global economic development and world peace and stability This Atlas highlights the global significance of South Asia in relation to economic geopolitical and strategic interests It provides a coherent descriptive and analytical account of the key elements of the complex societies that make up the region and its component countries Illustrated with more than 100 original maps and offering concise entries on key issues the book is structured thematically in these sections Global Context Geographical Environments Historical Evolution of South Asia Key Issues in modern South Asia Economy and Security Designed for use in teaching undergraduate and graduate classes and seminars in geography history economics anthropology international relations political science and the environment as well as regional courses on the South Asia this book is also a comprehensive reference source for libraries and decision makers focusing on South Asia Sharing Cities Shaping Cities

Giuseppe Salvia, Eugenio Morello, Andrea Arcidiacono, 2019-05-28 The sharing economy and collaborative consumption are attracting a great deal of interest due to their business legal and civic implications The consequences of the spreading of practices of sharing in urban environments and under daily dynamics are underexplored This Special Issue aims to address if and how sharing shapes cities the way that spaces are designed and lived in if social interactions are escalated and the ways that habits and routines take place in post individualistic society In particular the following key questions are of primary interest Urban fabric How is sharing shaping cities Does it represent a paradigm shift with tangible and physical reverberations on urban form How are shared mobility work inhabiting reconfiguring the urban and social fabric Social practices Are new lifestyles and practices related to sharing changing the use and design of spaces To what extent is sharing triggering a production and consumption paradigm shift to be reflected in urban arrangements and infrastructures Sustainability Does sharing increase the intensity of use of space and assets or rather does it increase them to meet the expectations of convenience for urban lifestyles To what extent are these phenomena fostering more economically socially and environmentally sustainable practices and cities Policy How can policy makers and municipalities interact with these bottom up and phenomena and grassroots innovation to create more sustainable cities Scholars responded to the above questions from the fields of urban studies urban planning and design sociology geography theoretically grounded and informed by the results of fieldwork activities Climate Terror Sanjay Chaturvedi, 2016-01-12 Climate Terror engages with a highly differentiated geographical politics of global warming It explores how fear inducing climate change discourses could result in new forms of dependencies domination and militarised climate security

Complexity and Crisis in the Financial System Matthew Hollow, Folarin Akinbami, Randal Michie, 2016-01-29 What are the long term causes and consequences of the global financial crisis of 2007 2008 This book offers a fresh perspective on these issues by bringing together a range of academics from law history economics and business to look in more depth at the changing relationships between crises and complexity in the US and UK financial markets The contributors are motivated by three main questions Is the present financial system more complex than in the past and if so why To what extent and in what ways does the worldwide financial crisis of 2007 2008 differ from past financial crises How can governments regulators and businesses better manage and deal with increased levels of complexity both in the present and in the future Students and scholars of finance economics history financial law banking and international business will find this book to be of interest It will also be of use to regulators and policymakers involved in the US and UK banking sectors Banking on Equality Supriti Bezbaruah,2015-03-24 It may well be surprising to say that the world should look to India as a model of gender equality India's banking sector proves the exception with several women reaching the highest positions in India's top banks including the country's largest bank Based on interviews and surveys of bank employees in India's National Capital Region this book looks at what lies behind the media rhetoric and provides a systematic analysis of patterns of and responses to gender inequality in the banking sector in India The book uncovers how gender discrimination still persists in the banking sector albeit in covert forms Through a comparison of nationalized Indian private and foreign banks the book demonstrates how the impact of laws local cultural norms and gendered workplace practices are mediated through different organizational forms in these different types of banks to create varied experiences of gender inequality The book is one of the first books to provide a thorough in depth analysis of women's employment in the Indian banking sector currently an under researched area
