Geographic Literacy Southwest Asia:

Geographic Literacy Pat Rischer Davis, 2001-08 Contains brief summary of each region covered alphabetized list of political and physical features blank and labelled reproducible physical and political maps tests and answer keys for each region

Geography of the World's Major Regions John Cole, 2003-09-02 This volume presents a global view of today's most pressing issues through an analysis of the twelve major regions of the world Environmental degradation natural catastrophe population pressures and human conflict all impact in different ways and to different degrees on the society and environment of these regions Economic and political restructuring within each region is covered and topics include natural resources agriculture industry and services the role of the military and the impact of global economic change This work is intended as an introduction for students studying the changing geography of the world but should also provide a useful overview to students researching specific regions seeking comparative analysis of regions or following general courses on the economic and political geography of both the post industrial and the developing worlds Over 250 photographs maps and figures complement a range of boxed case studies key points questions and guides to further reading

World Regional Geography (with Subregions) Lydia Mihelic Pulsipher, Alex Pulsipher, 2007-09-14 Shows how individuals are affected by and respond to economic social and political forces at all levels of scale global regional and local It offers an inclusive picture of people in a globalizing world men women children both mainstream and marginalized citizens not as seen from a western perspective but as they see themselves Core topics of physical economic cultural and political geography are examined from a contemporary perspective based on authoritative insights from recent geographic theory and examples from countries from around the world

Glencoe World Geography Richard G. Boehm, 1995

Why Geography Matters Harm de Blij, 2012-08-17 In recent years our world has seen transformations of all kinds intense climate change accompanied by significant weather extremes deadly tsunamis caused by submarine earthquakes unprecedented terrorist attacks costly wars in Iraq and Afghanistan a terrible and overlooked conflict in Equatorial Africa costing millions of lives an economic crisis threatening the stability of the international system Is there some way we can get our minds around these disparate global upheavals to grasp these events and their interconnections and place our turbulent world in a more understandable light Acclaimed author Harm de Blij answers this question with one word geography In this revised edition of the immensely popular and influential Why Geography Matters de Blij tackles topics from the burgeoning presence of China to the troubling disarray of the European Union from the dangerous nuclear ambitions of North Korea to the revolutionary Arab Spring By improving our understanding of the world's geography de Blij shows we can better respond to the events around us and better prepare ourselves to face the global challenges ahead Peppering his writing with anecdotes from his own professional travels de Blij expands upon his original argument offering an updated work that is as engaging as it is eye opening Casual students of geography and professional policy makers alike will benefit from this stimulating and crucial perspective on geography and the way it shapes our world's events America de Blij warns has become the world's most geographically illiterate society of consequence Indeed despite increasing global interconnectivity and rapid change Americans seem to be less informed and less knowledgeable about the rest of the world than ever In this compelling volume de Blij shows why this dispiriting picture must change and change now

World Regional Geography (without Subregions) Lydia Mihelic Pulsipher,Alex Pulsipher,2005-03-18 More than any other text for the course Pulsipher's World Regional Geography WRG shows students how individuals are affected by and respond to economic social and political forces at all levels of scale global regional subregional local It offers a vivid and inclusive picture of people in a globalizing world men women children both mainstream and marginalized citizens not as seen from a Western perspective but as they see themselves The core topics of physical economic cultural and political geography are examined from a contemporary perspective based on authoritative insights from the most recent geographic theory Two Versions of the Text Available World Regional Geography Global Patterns Local Lives Without Subregions Third Edition 475 pages January 2005 2006 0 7167 6825 9 Text with Optional Student CD ROM 0 7167 6843 7 World Regional Geography Global Patterns Local Lives With Subregions Third Edition 625 pages January 2005 2006 0 7167 1904 5 Text with Optional Student CD ROM 0 7167 6258 7

The New Politics of the Textbook Heather Hickman,Brad J. Porfilio,2012-10-13 In an age of unprecedented corporate and political control over life inside of educational institutions this book provides a needed intervention to investigate how the economic and political elite use traditional artifacts in K 16 schools to perpetuate their interests at the expense of minoritized social groups The contributors provide a comprehensive examination of how textbooks the most dominant cultural force in which corporations and political leaders impact the schooling curricula shape students thoughts and behavior perpetuate power in dominant groups and trivialize social groups who are oppressed on the structural axes of race class gender sexuality and disability Several contributors also generate critical insight in how power shapes the production of textbooks and evaluate whether textbooks still perpetuate dominant Western narratives that normalize and privilege patriotism militarism consumerism White supremacy heterosexism rugged individualism technology and a positivistic conception of the world Finally the book highlights several textbooks that challenge readers to rethink their stereotypical views of the Other to reflect upon the constitutive forces causing oppression in schools and in the wider society and to reflect upon how to challenge corporate and political dominance over knowledge production

Framing Asian Studies Albert Tzeng,William L Richter,Ekaterina Koldunova,2018-01-12 This book explores the interconnection between geopolitical context and the ways this context frames our knowledge about Asia highlighting previously neglected cause effect relations It also examines how various knowledge institutions promote and shape Asian Studies The authors seek to explain why Asian Studies and its subfields developed in the way they did and what the implications of these transformations might be on intellectual and political understandings of Asia The book not only builds on the current debates on the decolonization and de imperialization of knowledge about Asia it also proposes a more multifaceted view rather than just examining the impact of the West on the framing of Asian Studies
