

End of School Letter to Students

I'm glad I was your teacher,
I've come to love you so.
I can't believe the end is here,
I hate to see you go.
Remember all the fun we had
in all the things we did.
But most of all, remember...
You're a VERY special kid!

Goodbye Message To A First Grader:

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Early Childhood Transitions Research Aline-Wendy Dunlop, Sally Peters, Sharon Lynn Kagan, 2024-09-19 Research into early childhood transitions has become a field in its own right. It is increasingly understood that a positive start in any new setting can influence the child's engagement, sense of belonging, well-being, progression in learning and agency, and may be dependent on the insight of educators and families. And yet, there is no research methodology or research methods book dedicated to this growing field of study. Including 27 chapters written by researchers from the UK, New Zealand, the USA, Sweden, Iceland, Australia, and Canada, this handbook presents an overview of the field, exploring its current debates, reflects on its history, and offers suggestions for the future of the field. This book is an essential reference point for anyone studying or undertaking research into transitions in early childhood.

Child Art Therapy Judith Aron Rubin, 2011-03-08 An innovative guide to the practice of art therapy. Since 1978, Judith Aron Rubin's Child Art Therapy has become the classic text for conducting art therapy with children. Twenty-five years later, the book still stands as the reference for mental health professionals who incorporate art into their practice. Now, with the publication of this fully updated and revised Twenty-Fifth Anniversary Edition, which includes a DVD that illustrates art therapy techniques in actual therapy settings, this pioneering guide is available to train, inform, and inspire a new generation of art therapists and those seeking to introduce art therapy into their clinical practice. The text illustrates how to set the conditions for creative growth, assess progress, and set goals for therapy. Use art in individual, group, and family situations, including parent-child pairings, mothers' groups, and adolescent groups. Work with healthy children and those with disabilities. Guide parents through art and play. Talk about art work and encourage art production. Decode nonverbal messages contained in art and the art-making process. Use scribbles, drawings, stories, poems, masks, and other methods to facilitate expression. Understand why and how art therapy works. Along with the useful techniques and activities described, numerous case studies taken from Rubin's years of practice add a vital dimension to the text, exploring how art therapy works in the real world of children's experience. Original artwork from clients and the author illuminate the material throughout. Written by an internationally recognized art therapist, Child Art Therapy, Twenty-Fifth Anniversary Edition is a comprehensive guide for learning about practicing and refining child art therapy.

Teaching Literacy in First Grade Diane Lapp, 2005-05-05 First grade is a year of important new experiences for students and teachers alike. Some students will arrive knowing how to read; others will know a few letters of the alphabet; and most will be somewhere in between. Including dozens of reproducibles, this book guides first grade teachers in the many decisions they face about how to orchestrate effective, appropriate, and engaging instruction. A special strength of the book is the author's deep understanding of the oral language base of literacy learning, both reading and writing, and their expertise in differentiating instruction for

English language learners Daditude Chris Erskine, 2017-04-17 Wise wry and witty essays on fatherhood from Chris Erskine the beloved columnist for the Los Angeles Times and Chicago Tribune Charming well written concise and to the point Perfect for anyone who enjoys stories of fatherhood Library Journal Life is never peaceful in Chris Erskine's house what with the four kids 300 pound beagle chronically leaky roof and long suffering wife Posh And that's exactly the way he likes it except when he doesn't Every week in the Los Angeles Times and Chicago Tribune and now and then in many other papers Erskine distills mocks and makes us laugh at the absurdities of suburban fatherhood And now he's gathered the very best of these witty and wise essays and invited his kids and maybe even Posh to annotate them with updated commentary which they promise won't be too snarky This handsome book is the perfect gift for the father who would have everything if he hadn't already given it all to his kids

Research with Children Pia Christensen, Allison James, 2017-01-12 The entirely revised third edition of Research with Children forms a unique resource book on the methodology of childhood research with a core emphasis on theory driven practices As in the previous two editions this edition presents particular standpoints in the field whilst also reflecting the latest developments in the now well established interdisciplinary field of childhood studies A rich collection of contributions from leading researchers across a range of disciplinary backgrounds research practices and theoretical perspectives discuss central questions of epistemology and methodology demonstrating the links between theory and practice This edition includes exciting new chapters on Internet based research and contemporary technology Family based research Children as researchers Participatory research in the global context New directions for childhood research Both theoretical and practical questions are set out in a well argued fashion that enables easier navigation through the various complexities of the epistemological and methodological questions arising in contemporary research practices with children As such this text will appeal to both the newcomer to childhood studies and to experienced researchers in the field With fully updated chapters new material and a revised clearer structure this new edition will be a valuable resource for researchers working with children
