Every Army Man Is with You Nicolaus Mills, 2014-11-13 For Army's players their 1964 football game against a Navy team led by its Heisman Trophy winning quarterback Roger Staubach was a do or die battle Army had lost to Navy five years in a row This time a stunning victory by Army changed the Cadets fortunes and made headlines across the country With five of its starters playing offense and defense Army rallied to an 11-8 triumph The win was the beginning of an even greater challenge for West Point's players Soon they were in Vietnam fighting a war that did not end as they or America expected In Every Army Man Is with You Nicolaus Mills tells the story of that unforgettable Army team by focusing on the lives of seven of its players as they go from the football field to the Vietnam battlefield and back again to the States Mills sheds light not just on what the players experiences meant to them personally but on what their experiences say about the ways the Vietnam era shaped our nation

Aftermath of the Holocaust and Genocides Victoria Khiterer, Erin Magee, 2020-04-02 While many works have been published on different aspects of the Holocaust and genocides their aftermath and impact on society still require further research and discussion in scholarly literature This book illuminates unknown aspects of the aftermath of the Holocaust and genocides and discusses trials of Holocaust and genocide perpetrators commemoration of the victims attempts to revive Jewish national life and outbreaks of post World War II anti-Semitism It also analyzes the representation of the Holocaust and genocides in literature press and film The volume includes thirteen articles which are based on recently discovered archival materials and provides new approaches to the research of the Armenian genocide the Holodomor ethnic cleansing and the Holocaust

Black Men Worshipping S. Boyd, 2011-10-24 Black Men Worshipping analyzes the discursive spaces where Black masculinity is constructed performed and contested in American religion and culture It judiciously considers the anxiety that emerges from Black male negotiations with these constructions

Roadhouse Justice Trent Brown, 2022-09-14 In 1951 a young Black woman working as an overnight caretaker at a county line beer joint in southwestern Mississippi shot and killed a white intruder who was likely intending to assault her Hattie Lee Barnes's killing of Lamar Craft threw the courts into a whirlwind of conflicting stories and murder attempts illuminating the capriciousness of Mississippi justice in which race personal connections and community expectations mattered a great deal In Roadhouse Justice Trent Brown examines the long forgotten circumstances surrounding this case revealing not only the details of Craft's death and the lengthy court proceedings that followed but also the precarious nature of Black lives under the 1950s southern justice system Told here in full for the first time the story of Barnes's tribulations and ultimate victory demonstrates her intense determination and refusal to buckle under the enormous pressures she faced

The Sonic Gaze T Storm Heter, 2022-02-22 A central criticism emerging from Black and Creole thinkers is that mainstream white dominated culture consumes sounds and images of Creole and Black people in music theater and the white press while ignoring critiques of the white consumption of black culture Ironically critiques of whiteness are found not only in black literature and media but also within the blues jazz and spirituals that whites listened to loved collected and archived This book argues that whiteness is not only a visual orientation it is a way of hearing Inspired by formulations of the race and whiteness in the existential writings of Frantz Fanon Simone de Beauvoir Jean Paul Sartre W E B Du Bois Richard Wright Lewis Gordon Angela Davis bell hooks and Sara Ahmed T Storm Heter introduces the notion of the white sonic gaze Through case studies and musical examples from the history of American jazz the book builds a phenomenological archive to demonstrate the bad habits of white listening drawing from black journalism the autobiographies of Creole musicians and the lyrics and sonic content of early jazz music emerging from New Orleans Studying white listening orientations on the plantation in vaudeville minstrel shows and in cabarets the book portrays six types of bad faith white listeners including the white minstrel listener the white savior listener white hipster listener and the white colorblind listener Connecting critical race studies music studies philosophy of race and existentialism this book is for students to learn how to critique the phenomenology of whiteness and practice decolonial listening

The End of Amateurism in American Track and Field Joseph M. Turrini, 2010 Combining social and institutional history and incorporating the recollections of the athletes and meet directors on the front lines The End of Amateurism in Track and Field shows how the athletes thoroughly transformed their sport to end the amateur system in the early 1990s changes that allowed the athletes to market their potential drastically increase their earning possibilities and improve their quality of life

College Sports Eric A. Moyen, John R. Thelin, 2024-11-26 A bold and foundational history of the inception and evolution of intercollegiate athletics in the United States In College Sports historians Eric A Moyen and John R Thelin tell the intriguing story of the success and excess of American college sports from their inception to today Arguing that the modern American university's structure spurred the growth of big time sports Moyen and Thelin also highlight the treatment of marginalized groups in athletics and the role that commercialization and the media have played in shaping college sports Using a wealth of secondary resources archival records newspaper articles and oral histories Moyen and Thelin offer a chronological account of the popularity success and continued challenges of college sports Most scholarship has portrayed athletics as an anomaly within higher education but history reveals that college sports enjoy a symbiotic relationship with universities Reform and a return to a purely amateur model have rarely been a compelling option for those institutions that are successful in commercialized big time college sports At the same time most student athletes compete in a very different model And despite their progressive posturing colleges have been slow to fully adopt civil rights and social justice issues When full participation was finally extended to women and minorities it generally meant a move away from the amateur model into a commercial enterprise By examining key events at specific universities athletic conferences and the NCAA Moyen and Thelin trace how the media and sports marketing have created an incredibly successful financial model for schools in big time conferences Yet this model has also created a precarious fiscal situation for hundreds of other institutions

This provocative and refreshing take on sports in American universities provides the context in which to understand and improve upon the current landscape of intercollegiate athletics The Metal Worker, Plumber, and Steam Fitter ,1920
