Tarulevicz argues that in a society that has undergone substantial change in a relatively short amount of time food serves Singaporeans as a poignant connection to the past Eating has provided a unifying practice for a diverse society a metaphor for multiracialism and recognizable national symbols for a fledgling state Covering the period from British settlement in 1819 to the present and focusing on the post 1965 postcolonial era Tarulevicz tells the story of Singapore through the production and consumption of food Analyzing a variety of sources that range from cookbooks to architectural and city plans Tarulevicz offer a thematic history of this unusual country which was colonized by the British and operated as a port within Malaya Connecting food culture to the larger history of Singapore she discusses various topics including domesticity and home economics housing and architecture advertising and the regulation of food related manners and public behavior such as hawking littering and chewing gum Moving away from the predominantly political and economic focus of other histories of Singapore Eating Her Curries and Kway provides an important alternative reading of Singaporean society Adelaide Central Market Fiona Roberts, Katie Spain, 2018-11-27 Adelaide Central Market Stories people and recipes tells the tale of Adelaide s greatest treasure These pages capture the memories of traders of yesteryear and the familiar faces who make the Adelaide Central Market such a lively place today Here you ll find delicious seasonal driven recipes from stallholders families producers and chefs around the state Adelaide Central Market has been feeding our city body and soul for 150 years This book of fabulous stories recipes and images tells its tale from humble beginnings to a world renowned cultural and culinary cornucopia
