Cubism Emily Braun, Rebecca A. Rabinow, 2014-10-09 This beautifully illustrated volume tells the story of Cubism through twenty two essays that explore the most significant private holding of Cubist art in the world today the Leonard A. Lauder Collection now a promised gift to The Metropolitan Museum of Art The eighty works featured in this volume by Georges Braque Juan Gris Fernand Leger and Pablo Picasso are among the most important and visually arresting in the movement's history These masterpieces critical to the development of Cubism include such groundbreaking paintings as Braque's Trees at L'Estaque considered one of the very first Cubist pictures Picasso's Still Life with Fan L'Ind pendant one of the first to introduce typography Gris's noirish uncanny The Man at the Caf one of his most celebrated collages and Leger's uniquely ambitious Composition The Typographer Written by renowned experts on this subject the essays trace the evolution of Cubism from its origins in the still lifes portraits and collages of Braque and Picasso through the precisely delineated compositions by Gris that prefigure the Synthetic Cubism of the war years to Leger's distinctive intersections of spherical cylindrical and cubic forms that evoke the syncopated rhythms of modern life Also included are a fascinating interview in which Leonard Lauder discusses his approach to collecting an investigative essay on the information gleaned from the backs of the works themselves and an authoritative catalogue that further establishes the lives of these magnificent objects A publication to place alongside the great histories of Modernism this comprehensive book will stand as the resource for understanding Cubism for many years to come

Cultural Critique Through the Detour of Art Kris Rutten, Keyan G. Tomaselli, 2025-06-30 This book brings together a selection of articles that have been published throughout a series of special issues of the journal Critical Arts South North Cultural and Media Studies that originally focused on the so called ethnographic turn in contemporary arts An increasing wave of art events has occurred since the 1990s that have displayed significant similarities with anthropology and ethnography in their theorizations of cultural difference and representational practices The aim of these works was to revisit the ethnographic turn in contemporary art by bringing together contributions from theorists artists and critics to engage critically with the ethnographic perspective in their work This focus on the ethnographic turn has been expanded in subsequent special issues to explore how culture and society can be critically explored and challenged through the detour of art how contemporary art practices engage with participation interaction and technology in an increasingly digital screen culture and what the role can be of critical art to conceptualize contest and or develop an engaged and critical pedagogy This collection aims to re expose the special issues to an international audience by presenting a non exhaustive selection of articles that exemplify the different perspectives and discussions that are tackled throughout It starts with three of the introductory articles that have attracted large readerships and that give a detailed introduction for the special issues The compilation ends with three so called Vignettes these are short statements and reflections by artists about their practice which are an important feature of the special issues
