Hooray My Child Does Not Listen:

Hooray! My Child Does Not Listen Miranda Kant, 2015-01-15 As the eldest son of the author challenges her she begins to question her role as a mother In her quest to help her son she finds herself and her own parenting In this book she describes her discoveries on her family as emotional combative and eventually wonderful On the second part of the book she elaborates on her discoveries on practical tools that can be used by every educator at their discretion This is not just a book for educators but for anyone who wants to bring more love into his her life Born in 1970 Miranda Kant goes in search of help for her children that she finds difficult to handle Eventually they work together By watching and listening to her children she discovers that they love to mirror her Every time she changes her behavior they also change their behavior Gradually she finds a way of relating with her children who became loving and inspiring Their experiences fit in this new time The
