

Scenario: Executive HR Fashion Neckties

Problem: The fashion industry has experienced a significant decline in sales, particularly in the executive necktie market. This decline is attributed to several factors, including the changing preferences of the target market, the increasing competition from casual wear, and the economic downturn. The company's current product line is outdated and does not reflect the latest trends in the market. The company's marketing strategy is also outdated and does not effectively reach the target market. The company's financial performance is also declining, and the company is facing a significant cash flow problem. The company's management is seeking a solution to these problems and is looking for a new product line and a new marketing strategy.
