Inside the Mathematics Class Uwe Gellert, Christine Knipping, Hauke Straehler-Pohl, 2018-09-26 This volume is a forward looking intersection of Sociological perspectives on mathematics classrooms and socio political perspectives on mathematics education The first perspective has generated a substantial body of knowledge in the mathematics education Interactionist research has deepened our understanding of interaction processes socio mathematical norms and the negotiation of meaning generating a micro sociology or a micro ethnography of the mathematics classroom More recently socio political perspectives on mathematics education interrelate educational practices in mathematics with macro social issues of social equity class and race and with the policies that regulate institutionalized mathematics education This book documents strings together and juxtaposes research that uses ethnographical classroom data to explain on the one hand how socio political issues play out in the mathematics class On the other hand it illuminates how class race etc affect the micro sociology of the mathematics classroom The volume advances the knowledge in the field by providing an empirical grounding of socio political research on mathematics education and it extends the frame in which mathematical classroom cultures are conceived

On My Own Xueli Wang, 2021-02-18 2020 ASHE Council for the Advancement of Higher Education Programs CAHEP Barbara Townsend Lecture Award 2021 Transfer Champion Catalyst Award from the National Institute for the Study of Transfer Students NISTS 2021 Outstanding Publication Award AERA Division J Publication and Research On My Own The Challenge and Promise of Building Equitable STEM Transfer Pathways is the first book of its kind to provide a detailed on the ground examination of the difficult paths curricular interpersonal and institutional that students must chart through community college The book follows 1 670 two year college students over four years as they begin STEM programs in the Midwest and documents their educational and life experiences as they moved toward or away from the prospect of transfer to a four year institution Their stories reveal that they were on their own left to navigate the pathways to transfer without meaningful institutional support The students pursued one of four pathways or momentum trajectories linear upward detoured deferred or taking a break The preexisting and lasting disparities in their access to education and financial resources their experiences with teaching and advising and the conundrum between support from and for family among others propelled them onto different trajectories in their quest for transfer As this book makes painfully clear the current state of transfer acts as a mechanism that perpetuates and worsens inequities in educational outcomes As Xueli Wang argues to cultivate an equitable STEM transfer pathway culturally relevant and responsive supports that are accessible welcoming and validating must be put in place at the institutional level and appeal to the talent motivation and unique needs of historically marginalized students In doing so postsecondary institutions will be better positioned to fulfill their promise as an equitable pathway to bachelor s degrees and beyond Getting Skills Right:
