Vistro-Yu,Tin Lam Toh,2019-04-26 This book sheds light on school mathematics curricula in Asian countries including their design and the recent reforms that have been initiated By discussing and analyzing various problematic aspects of curriculum development and implementation in a number of East and South Asian countries and offering insights into these countries unique approaches to supplementing school mathematics curricula it contributes to shaping effective policies for implementation assessment and monitoring of curricula The book covers a wide range of issues curriculum design localization of curricula directions of curricular reforms mathematics textbooks assessment within the curriculum and teachers professional development which are of interest to a wide international audience Federal Register ,2013-06 Paired Maths Handbook Judi Bamford,Keith J. Topping,2013-11-12 First Published in 1998 This book is one of a family of three related books consisting of two resource Handbooks for everyday use supported by a more detailed background text for deeper reading and reference The Paired Maths Handbook gives a brief introduction to the rationale materials organisation and evaluation of the Paired Maths method for parental involvement and peer tutoring in mathematics for children aged 4 to 14 This is followed by 12 different practical resources to copy to help with the organisation of the method The main part of the book consists of two dimensional mathematical games to copy complete with instructions and needing minimal other materials These games are particularly suitable for children aged 9 to 12 especially when involved in cooperative learning or peer tutoring in schools or other study centres Oxford University Gazette University of Oxford,1911 Access to Scientific Research David J. Brown,2015-11-13 The debate about access to scientific research raises questions about the current effectiveness of scholarly communication processes This book explores from an independent point of view the current state of the STM publishing market new publishing technologies and business models as well as the information habit of researchers the politics of research funders and the demand for scientific research as a public good The book also investigates the democratisation of science including how the information needs of knowledge workers outside academia can be embraced in future Soviet SCI_BERIA Ksenia Tatarchenko,2024-10-03 At first glance the Novosibirsk Scientific Center or Akademgorodok appears as an outlier in academic excellence This science city is renowned for a preeminent university dozens of research institutes and a thriving technopark At home it is an emblem of Russian innovation abroad it is often portrayed as a potential threat a breeding ground of cyber soldiers Though Siberia has been the main source of post 1991 Russian carbon revenues its soviet history and cold war legacy of internationalism demonstrates that territorial and scientific dimensions interlocked the moment the Siberian Branch of the Soviet Academy of Sciences was created in 1957 Drawing on a wide range of previously unexplored archives Soviet SCI_BERIA focuses on how the post Stalinist Siberia was redefined and represented through the ideal of rational development the late socialist innovation practices and the relationship between experts and the state It offers a fresh insight into the transition from Soviet to post Soviet Akademgorodok In doing so Tatarchenko not only fosters a conversation between history area studies and science studies but also sheds new light on Soviet modernity and the limits of its transformative projects

Teacher Education through Active Engagement Lori Beckett, 2013-12-04

Teacher Education through Active Engagement identifies and addresses a contemporary issue the ways in which teaching and teacher education are articulated by politicians civil servants business leaders and educational entrepreneurs intent on profit making in the current global neoliberal policy context This is often characterised by narrow and ill conceived ideas about teacher characteristics and competences recruiting and fast tracking graduates from elsewhere into the profession the reform of teacher training with less emphasis on theory and academic study a narrow focus on teachers core skills and the promotion of training in model teaching schools In this book contributors challenge this conceptualisation and demonstrate practitioners necessary intellectual activity to wrest back professional control By drawing on practice focused research carried out in sites of educational policy and practice each chapter exemplifies for teachers student teachers and teacher educators the sort of knowledge work to coordinate a professional reply to non educationalists who dictate the terms of teaching and teacher education The book provides directions for encouraging critical thinking analytical skills and political activism which consider the needs and interests of diverse children and young people in real classrooms real schools and real communities Illustrated throughout with practice focused research and drawing on the historical case of Winifred Mercier and her colleagues at the City of Leeds training college who challenged the establishment to leave a legacy of professional control the book will appeal to practitioners academics and researchers in the fields of teacher education and education studies
