Uncertain Territories Inge E. Boer, 2006-01-01 Tracing and theorizing the concept of the boundaries through literary works visual objects and cultural phenomena this book argues against the reification of boundaries as fixed and empty non spaces that simply divide the world Expanding on her previous work on gender and Orientalism Inge Boer takes us into uncertain territories of fashion and art tourism and travel skilfully engaging the ambivalence of boundaries as both protecting and confining as bringing distinction while existing by virtue of their ability to be transgressed In her close readings of that boundaries as desert as frame as home or lack of it Boer shows that boundaries are spaces within through and in the name of which negotiations take place They are not lines but spaces neither fixed nor empty but flexible and inhabited With the publication of this book Boer s intellectual legacy stretches beyond her untimely passing The writings that she left behind can be said to have inaugurated the future of her work presented in the latter part by several of Boer s intellectual companions In their original essays the contributors elaborate on Boer s theme of boundaries as spaces where opposition yields to negotiation Committed to the artefact as cultural stimulant as the embodiment of thought their analyses span a multitude of artefacts and media ranging from literature to photography to art installation and presentation to film and song Fanning out from Boer s central focus Orientalism to other places of contestation boundaries are shown to mediate the relationship between self and other they are ultimately spaces of encounter
