MODEL ANSWER (STREAMLINED) - 'What is the purpose of Source B?' (7/8 marks)

Cambridge IGCSE History

2025 - KQ2

A cartoon cartoon published in 1919

The purpose of Source B is to highlight the opinions and readiness of the League of Nations to treat the world into a more peaceful and stable, whilst also showing to the potential challenges the League may face in getting their mission off the ground. The intended audience is the British public, and the cartoon is attempting to build a sense of cautious optimism. The cartoon depicts an archway labelled 'League of Nations' that appears to be perfectly constructed sitting at a cliff labelled 'The Foundation of Peace'. Above, there is a signpost labeled 'The League of Nations' pointing away from the cliff towards the archway and towards the horizon where the sky becomes clear, and the archway begins. The caption of the cartoon is 'Ready to Start'. The cartoon symbolises the League of Nations and how glad to take the world out of the dark and turbulent times of WWI, as symbolised by the clouds above and towards a brighter future, symbolising the cloud that WWI created and ending war. However, the lack of a warning signpost for a year to immediately take off, could also suggest a caution about whether the League of Nations will successfully be able to get their mission off the ground or whether their plans are perhaps overly ambitious and their structural flaws and limited resources for great, critical in their long term success.

Using own knowledge: I know that the League of Nations was created as part of the Treaty of Versailles in 1919. It was the first time that many structural and operational flaws from the very nature of its creation. A lack of representation, understanding and common structure which undermined democratic principles, limited a sense of optimism among some that it would be able to carry out its job effectively. Coupled with this was the lack of leadership and leading which meant from under how America's leadership. Without America, some doubted whether the League had the power to regulate and enforce international conflicts and peacekeeping powers, as represented in the cartoon. The cartoonist's viewpoint is one of cautious optimism. It represents the idea of hope for the future and growth with the League of Nations' determination to achieve its aim, but also highlights the fact that the mission may be a difficult one to achieve. In short, the purpose of the cartoon is to acknowledge the lofty goals of the League while also highlighting the fragile foundation upon which these ambitions are set. The cartoon suggests that the success of the League is uncertain and that it is about to undertake a significant challenge.
