Eclecticism in Late Medieval Visual Culture at the Crossroads of the Latin, Greek, and Slavic Traditions Maria Alessia Rossi,Alice Isabella Sullivan,2021-11-22 This volume builds upon the new worldwide interest in the global Middle Ages It investigates the prismatic heritage and eclectic artistic production of Eastern Europe between the fourteenth and seventeenth centuries while challenging the temporal and geographical parameters of the study of medieval Byzantine post Byzantine and early modern art Contact and interchange between primarily the Latin Greek and Slavic cultural spheres resulted in local assimilations of select elements that reshaped the artistic landscapes of regions of the Balkan Peninsula the Carpathian Mountains and further north The specificities of each region and in modern times politics and nationalistic approaches have reinforced the tendency to treat them separately preventing scholars from questioning whether the visual output could be considered as an expression of a shared history The comparative and interdisciplinary framework of this volume provides a holistic view of the visual culture of these regions by addressing issues of transmission and appropriation as well as notions of cross cultural contact while putting on the global map of art history the eclectic artistic production of Eastern Europe

Unity and Catholicity in Christ Eric J. DeMeuse,2022 Debates concerning the relationship between Tridentine Catholicism and Catholicism after Vatican II dominate theological conversation today particularly with regard to understandings of the Church and its engagement with the world Current historical narratives paint ecclesiology after the Council of Trent as dominated by juridical concerns uniformity and institutionalism This book challenges such narratives by investigating the theology of ecclesial unity and catholicity of the renowned Spanish Jesuit Francisco Suarez 1548-1617 Reexamining standard as well as overlooked sources of Suarez's ecclesiology the author shows how Suarez wrestles with the new demands of his time to produce a vision of the Church that is deeply spiritual diverse and missional even anticipating later ecumenical developments in twentieth century Catholic ecclesiology God and the EU Jonathan Chaplin, Gary Wilton, 2015-12-14 The current political economic and financial crises facing the EU reveal a deeper cultural indeed spiritual malaise a crisis in the soul of Europe Many observers are concluding that the soul of Europe cannot be restored to health without a new appreciation of the contribution of religion to its past and future and especially that of its hugely important but widely neglected Christian heritage which is alive today even amidst advancing European secularization This book offers a fresh constructive and critical understanding of Christian contributions to the origin and development of the EU from a variety of theological and national perspectives It explains the Christian origins of the EU documents the various ways in which it has been both affirmed and critiqued from diverse theological perspectives offers expert theologically informed assessments of four illustrative policy areas of the EU trade finance environment science and also reports on the place of religion in the EU including how religious freedom is framed and how contemporary religious including Muslim actors relate to EU institutions and vice versa The book fills a major gap in the current debate about the future of the European project and will be of interest to students and scholars of religion politics and European studies The Efficacy of the Exorcistic Prayers in the Athosite Manuscript of Xiropotamou 98, (2260) 16 Jesmond Micallef, 2023-01-06 The Covid 19 pandemic in the year 2020 exposed a fragility of human consciousness at all latitudes In the face of unforeseen threats we are unable to react or we become slaves to irrational instincts which can lead to hysterical and obsessive behaviours precisely those described by the diabolical possessions against which the Church has been fighting for two thousand years since Christ entrusted her with power to defeat the devil Moreover the activity of exorcism is described in the Gospels as the main manifestation of the divine power of the Lord Jesus which released from him for the salvation of men This book presents for the first time an edition of the Xiropotamou manuscript 98 preserved at the Library of the Xiropotamou monastery of Mount Athos in Greece It cushions the liturgical exorcistic prayer of the manuscript between a biblical study of this ancient activity of the Church and an overview of the Rite of Exorcism in Orthodox usage in Early Middle and Late Byzantium The Eclectic Visual Culture of Medieval Moldavia Alice Isabella Sullivan, 2023-05-25 Winner of the 2023 Early Slavic Studies Book Prize from the Early Slavic Studies Association ESSA Best book Medieval Moldavia which was located within present day northeastern Romania and the Republic of Moldova developed a bold and eclectic visual culture beginning in the 15th century Within this networked Carpathian Mountain region art and architecture reflect the creativity and diversity of the cultural landscapes of Eastern Europe Moldavian objects and monuments ranging from fortified monasteries and churches enveloped in fresco cycles to silk embroideries delicately carved woodwork and metalwork as well as manuscripts gifted to Mount Athos and other Christian centers negotiate the complex issues of patronage and community in the region The works attest to processes of cultural contact and translation revealing how Western medieval Byzantine and Slavic traditions were mediated in Moldavian contexts in the post Byzantine period Winner of the 2023 Early Slavic Studies Book Prize awarded by the Early Slavic Studies Association ESSA for the best book published between Sept 1 2021 and August 31 2023 in the field of Early Slavic Studies pre 1800 The awarding committee praised the volume as the first English monograph to provide a comprehensive overview of Moldavia s artistic and architectural landscape during the 15th and 16th centuries locating the region as a significant facet in the global map of art history Official ESSA announcement Manuscripts of the Book of Revelation Garrick V. Allen, 2020-07-30 The Book of Revelation is a disorienting work full of beasts heavenly journeys holy war the End of the Age and the New Jerusalem It is difficult to follow the thread that ties the visions together and to makes sense of the work s message In Manuscripts of the Book of Revelation Garrick Allen argues that one way to understand the strange history of Revelation and its challenging texts is to go back to its manuscripts The texts of the Greek manuscripts of Revelation are the foundation for the words that we encounter when we read Revelation in a modern Bible But the manuscripts also tell us what other ancient medieval and early modern people thought about the work they copied and read The paratexts of Revelation the many features of the manuscripts that help readers to interpret the text are one important point of evidence Incorporating such diverse features like the traditional apparatus that accompanies ancient commentaries to the random marginal notes that identify the true identity of the beast paratexts are founts of information on how other mostly anonymous people interpreted Revelation s problem texts Allen argues that manuscripts are not just important for textual critics or antiquarians but that they are important for scholars and serious students because they are the essential substance of what the New Testament is This book illustrates ways that the manuscripts illuminate surprising answers to important critical questions We can learn to read the manuscripts even if we don t know the language Orthodox Cyprus under the Latins, 1191-1571 Chrysovalantis Kyriacou, 2018-10-15 Medieval and Renaissance Cyprus was a fascinating place of ethnic cultural and religious encounters Following almost nine centuries of Byzantine rule Cyprus was conquered by the Crusaders in 1191 becoming until 1571 the most important stronghold of Latin Christianity in the Eastern Mediterranean first under the Frankish dynasty of the Lusignans and later under the Venetians Modern historiographical readings of Cypriot identity in medieval and early modern times have been colored by British colonialism Greek nationalism and Cyprocentric revisionism Although these perspectives have offered valuable insights into the historical experience of Latin ruled Cypriots they have partially failed to capture the dynamics of noncoercive resistance to domination and of identity preservation and adaptation Orthodox Cyprus under the Latins 1191-1571 readdresses the question of Cypriot identity by focusing on the Greek Cypriots the island s largest community during the medieval and early modern period By bringing together theories from the fields of psychology social anthropology and sociology this study explores continuities and discontinuities in the Byzantine culture and religious tradition of Cyprus proposing a new methodological framework for a more comprehensive understanding of Cypriot Orthodoxy under Crusader and Venetian rule A discussion of fresh evidence from hitherto unpublished primary sources enriches this examination stressing the role of medieval and Renaissance Cyprus as cultural and religious province of the Byzantine and post Byzantine Orthodox world Christianity and International Law Pamela Slotte, John D. Haskell, 2021-05-20 This cross disciplinary collaboration offers historical and contemporary scholarship exploring the interface of Christianity and international law Christianity and International Law aims to understand and move past arguments narratives and tropes that commonly frame law religion studies in global governance Readers are introduced to a range of confessional and critical perspectives explicitly engaging a diverse range of methodological and theoretical orientations to rethink how we experience and find ourselves caught within the phenomena of Christianity and international law
