Final Examination Study Guide

There final exams will be in two parts. The final part (40%) will be multiple choice questions. They will be taken from lectures you have already seen throughout the class, so it will be prepared well for the questions and learned facts that make you better along the way, preparing for the final part throughout the semester. The second part will consist of two essay questions based on some of the bigger concepts covered throughout the course (20%). You will have a choice of questions from which you can select what to write, so students can play to their strengths. You will also be asked upon to show how your understanding of material from lectures are connected (and discussed) to class.

Potential material students could test in the essay questions (although for the final essay test)

1. Reconstruction and the New South: the term

- a. What does "Reconstruction" refer to? What were the challenges involved in accomplishing it?
- b. How were challenges hindered by individuals/locally-driven events?
- c. What were the most difficult aspects of Reconstruction? Corruption and political macho, including who controlled the plans and what their goals were.
- d. If you discuss Reconstruction, be prepared to discuss the American Reconstruction that encompassed violence as part of your essay.

2. The Second Industrial Revolution: Population and Progressivism

- a. What caused the Second Industrial Revolution to start? Creation from Big Business took control of not only the economy but federal, state and local politics, national ideas, social movements, agriculture.
- b. The primary goal was showing that Second Industrial Revolution was an achievement that the social problems in America required the nation and caused it to negatively affect future movements.
- c. Describe the rise of Progressivism, discussing at least three different reform movements. Discuss the leaders and major legislative goals. How did change and reform come? The reform movements in America have the temperance, women's suffrage, children's issues, the 17th Amendment movements, Progressivism, the Chicago's labor regulation bill or the 19th Amendment, women's labor, children labor
