Holland,Bryant A. Matthews,2017-12-11 Beyond Earnings is targeted at investors financial professionals and students who want to improve their ability to analyze financial statements forecast cash flows and ultimately value a company The authors demonstrate that reported earnings are easily gamed by accounting shenanigans and reveal how commonly used profitability measures such as return on equity can be misleading Because earnings and P E ratios are too unreliable for valuation this book takes you beyond earnings and shows you how to apply the HOLT CFROI and Economic Profit framework in a step by step manner A better measure of profitability results in improved capital allocation decisions and fundamental valuations This ground breaking book offers the first practical in depth discussion of how profitability and growth fade and shows how to put this information to work right away The authors introduce their trailblazing Fundamental Pricing Model which includes fade as an adjustable value driver and can be used to value the impact of business model disruption As the authors explain the key to superior stock picking is understanding the expectations embedded in a stock s price and having a clear view of whether the company can beat those expectations The HOLT framework has been rigorously field tested for over 40 years by global investment professionals to help them make better stock picks and by corporate managers to understand the expectations embedded in their stock price Beyond Earnings is an indispensable guide for investors who want to improve their odds of outperforming the competition X-Kit Undergraduate Cost and Management Accounting ,2007 Downhill Without Brakes Val Binney,2024-10-28 Downhill Without Brakes explores the impact of dramatic societal change on a group of characters in post Apartheid South Africa The story is told through the eyes of a black and a white protagonist as they deal with the outcomes of an ill fated encounter between them Heritage Formation and the Senses in Post-Apartheid South Africa Duane Jethro,2020-05-11 In this book Duane Jethro creates a framework for understanding the role of the senses in processes of heritage formation He shows how the senses were important for crafting and successfully deploying new nation building heritage projects in South Africa during the postapartheid period The book also highlights how heritage dynamics are entangled in evocative changing sensory worlds Jethro uses five case studies that correlate with the five main Western senses Examples include touch and the ruination of a series of art memorials how vision was mobilised to assert the authority of the state sponsored Freedom Park project in Pretoria how smell memories of apartheid era social life in Cape Town informed contemporary struggles for belonging after forced removal how taste informed debates about the attempted rebranding of Heritage Day as barbecue day and how the sound of the vuvuzela popularized during the FIFA 2010 Football World Cup helped legitimize its unofficial African and South African heritage status This book makes a valuable contribution to the field of sensory studies and with its focus on aesthetics and material culture is in sync with the broader material turn in the humanities
