

Compare and Contrast Essay Structure

Introduction	Introduce the essay with a hook that demonstrates relevance of the essay to the reader. Introduce the items being compared and outline your essay structure.
	Thesis Statement: Don't forget to state your thesis statement in the introduction. For a compare and contrast essay, you may make a value judgement about which item is best for a certain circumstance.
Orientation	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Define your two items/concepts that are to be analyzed• Explain the context of your discussion• Delve deeper into the definition of each, explaining aspects or details about the concepts to help the reader understand them more.
Feature 1 Feature 2 Feature 3	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Select features that can be compared between the two items (e.g. size, quality, etc.)• Explore similarities• Explore differences• Make value judgements about the differences between the items that is consistent with your thesis statement
Evaluation	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Sum up your key points and make an overall value judgement or argument about the two concepts, e.g. "Based upon the above information, it is clear that oranges are better than apples because..."
Conclusion	Close the loop by returning to a statement you made in the introduction. Show what your final position is. Explain who should be interested in your findings. End by noting in one final, engaging sentence why this topic is of such importance.

Introducing English for Specific Purposes presents the key concepts and practices of ESP in a modern balanced and comprehensive way. This book defines ESP and shows how the approach plays a crucial role in the world of English language teaching. Explaining how needs analysis, language and learning objectives, materials and methods, and evaluation combine to form the four main pillars of ESP, the book includes practical examples that illustrate how the core theories and practices of ESP can be applied in real world academic and occupational settings. Discussion of some of the most hotly debated issues in ESP, insights on how ESP courses can be organized and integrated to form a complete program, reflection boxes, practical tasks, extension research questions, and resources for further reading in each chapter. Introducing English for Specific Purposes serves as an ideal textbook for graduate and advanced undergraduate students studying courses on English for Specific Purposes or English for Academic Purposes as part of degrees in English for Specific Purposes, Education, ELT, Applied Linguistics, TESOL, or TEFL. This comprehensive publication is also an invaluable reference resource for pre-service and in-service teachers of ESP and for English program managers and administrators.

Translation of Thought to Written Text While Composing Michel Fayol, M. Denis Alamargot, Virginia Berninger, 2012-05-04

Translation of cognitive representations into written language is one of the most important processes in writing. This volume provides a long-awaited updated overview of the field. The contributors discuss each of the commonly used research methods for studying translation, theorize about the nature of the cognitive and language representations and cognitive linguistic transformation mechanisms involved in translation during writing, and make the case that translation is a higher order executive function that is fundamental to the writing process. The book also reviews the application of research to practice that is the translation of the research findings in education and the work world for individuals who interact with others using written language to communicate ideas. This volume provides a rich resource for student theorists and empirical researchers in cognitive psychology, linguistics, and education, and teachers and clinicians who can use the research in their work.
