Writing That Makes Sense, 2nd Edition David S. Hogsette, 2019-11-05 The second edition of Writing That Makes Sense takes students through the fundamentals of the writing process and explores the basic steps of critical thinking. Drawing upon over twenty years of experience teaching college composition and professional writing, David S. Hogsette combines relevant writing pedagogy and practical assignments with the basics of critical thinking to provide students with step-by-step guides for successful academic writing in a variety of rhetorical modes. New in the second edition: Expanded discussion of how to write effective thesis statements for informative, persuasive, evaluative, and synthesis essays, including helpful thesis statement templates; Extensive templates introducing students to conventions of academic discourse, including integrating outside sources, interacting with other writers' ideas, and dialoguing with multiple perspectives; Examples of academic writing from different disciplines illustrating essay titles, abstracts, thesis statements, introductions, conclusions, and voice; Expanded discussion of voice in academic writing, including an exploration of active and passive voice constructions in different disciplines and tips on how to edit for clarity; A new chapter on writing in the disciplines; Updated sample student papers; New readings with examples of opposing views and multiple perspectives.

Handbook of Automated Essay Evaluation Mark D. Shermis, Jill Burstein, 2013-07-18 This comprehensive interdisciplinary handbook reviews the latest methods and technologies used in automated essay evaluation (AEE). Methods and technologies: Highlights include the latest in the evaluation of performance-based writing assessments and recent advances in the teaching of writing, language testing, cognitive psychology, and computational linguistics. This greatly expanded follow-up to Automated Essay Scoring reflects the numerous advances that have taken place in the field since 2003, including automated essay scoring and diagnostic feedback. Each chapter features a common structure, including an introduction and a conclusion. Ideas for diagnostic and evaluative feedback are sprinkled throughout the book. Highlights of the book's coverage include: The latest research on automated essay evaluation; Descriptions of the major scoring engines, including the E-rater, the Intelligent Essay Assessor, the Intellimetric™ Engine, e-rater™, and LightSIDE; Applications of the uses of the technology, including a large-scale system used in West Virginia; A systematic framework for evaluating research and technological results; Descriptions of AEE methods that can be replicated for languages other than English, as seen in the example from China; Chapters from key researchers in the field. The book opens with an introduction to AEEs and a review of the best practices of teaching writing, along with tips on the use of automated analysis in the classroom. Next, the book highlights the capabilities and applications of several scoring engines, including the E-rater, the Intelligent Essay Assessor, the Intellimetric™ engine, e-rater™, and LightSIDE. Here, readers will find an actual application of the use of an AEE in West Virginia: psychometric issues related to AEEs, such as validity, reliability, and scaling, and the use of automated scoring to detect reader drift, grammatical errors, discourse coherence, quality, and the impact of human rating on AEEs. A review of the cognitive foundations underlying methods used in

AEE is also provided The book concludes with a comparison of the various AEE systems and speculation about the future of the field in light of current educational policy Ideal for educators professionals curriculum specialists and administrators responsible for developing writing programs or distance learning curricula those who teach using AEE technologies policy makers and researchers in education writing psychometrics cognitive psychology and computational linguistics this book also serves as a reference for graduate courses on automated essay evaluation taught in education computer science language linguistics and cognitive psychology

Foundations of Writing for University Study David Fonteyn,2024-06-21 This textbook explains the fundamentals of effective academic writing for university studies across multiple genres and formats It is intended for students who are either in the early stages of their university studies or are preparing to enter a university degree One of the ways this textbook differs from other textbooks on academic writing is its focus on the organisation of the English sentence through Theme and Rheme The Theme is what the sentence is about while the Rheme is what is being said about the Theme In the English clause the Theme is at the beginning and the Rheme follows At the same time as the English clause is divided into Theme and Rheme the clause can be understood as a unit of information where New information is provided to Given information One of the central aims of the textbook is to increase awareness of the flow of Given and New information from sentence to sentence and for students to have greater ability in its organisation Moreover New information is formally organised through prosody or rhythm and intonation patterns This approach takes account of English rhythms intonation and stress patterns that accompany sentences and how this relates to writing sentences Through the Theme Rheme and Given New approach combined with an understanding of Genre this book aims to both increase awareness of these aspects of the English sentence and explore how this aspect of English facilitates clearer and more effective writing Successful College Writing Kathleen T.
