Culturally Responsive Assessment in Classrooms and Large-Scale Contexts Carla M. Evans, Catherine S.

Taylor, 2025-03-10 Culturally Responsive Assessment in Classrooms and Large Scale Contexts explores how scholars and professionals in educational measurement and assessment can use the unique cultural and social identities of students to shape assessment purpose design implementation use and validation processes Despite the sheer diversity of student populations in the United States the tools used to understand their performance and progress have not substantively changed in decades Large scale testing and related policies still privilege culturally neutral test content standardization and comparability Classroom assessments often mimic these procedures even though rich tasks and activities could easily be incorporated into curriculum and instruction to allow students to see themselves their interests communities beliefs and backgrounds represented and valued This book collects the theory research and best practices that are essential to ensuring cultural responsiveness in classroom assessment and standardized testing procedures policies and practices Chapters by assessment and measurement experts along with scholars who are experts in sociocultural learning theory philosophy of education critical theories multilingual education and Indigenous education summarize findings from existing research and suggest how future research can move classroom and industry practice as well as federal state and local policy forward

Managing the New Tools in K-12 Teaching and Learning Jerome A. Schulz, 2018-02-02 Managing the New Tools in K 12 Teaching and Learning How Technology Can Enable School Improvement is about how to manage technology for learning at the district and school levels It provides an overview of the components of learning technology these include student devices networking software productivity toolkits electronic curricula and resources and data system infrastructure And it discusses how we can manage our technology efforts more effectively to help our students attain the benefits of this technology The book concludes with case studies of how this is being done at pioneering districts We are now at a tipping point in implementing learning technology on a larger scale This is happening very quickly Historically learning technology was driven by a strategy of technology integration where we called on individual teachers to each determine how to use technology in their classes and make changes in their own ways of working But to successfully implement technology on the scale we need requires top down as well as bottom up efforts Managing the New Tools in K 12 Teaching and Learning focuses on how districts and schools can now use technology to bring about the big improvements in learning we are all striving for Education James A. Middleton, Jinfa Cai, Stephen Hwang, 2015-05-05 In recent years funding agencies like the Institute of Educational Sciences and the National Science Foundation have increasingly emphasized large scale studies with experimental and quasi experimental designs looking for objective truths Educational researchers have recently begun to use large scale studies to understand what really works from developing interventions to validation studies of the intervention and then to efficacy studies and the final scale up for large implementation of an intervention Moreover modeling student learning developmentally taking into account cohort factors issues of socioeconomics local political context and the presence or absence of interventions requires the use of large data sets wherein these variables can be sampled adequately and inferences made Inroads in quantitative methods have been made in the psychometric and sociometric literatures but these methods are not yet common knowledge in the mathematics education community In fact currently there is no volume devoted to discussion of issues related to large scale studies and to report findings from them This volume is unique as it directly discusses methodological issue in large scale studies and reports empirical data from large scale studies
